McAdoo Estate Planning, LLC

Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Kim McAdoo (attorney) / Scott Holt (ops)	$3M+ (HubSpot est., not stated on call)	~4-6	Stage 4	15% (default)	Jamaica, Queens NY

Dominant Buying Motive: FREEDOM (Operational Relief)

Scott wants the firm's marketing, intake, and vendor coordination to run without his constant manual intervention — freedom from being the fallback for every gap.

> "forced to DIY landing pages causing inconsistency and fatigue"
> "crap"

What he wants:

- Automatic intake. Leads followed up and CRM data kept clean without him doing it by hand.
- After-hours coverage that just works. No leads slipping through untracked outside business hours.
- A marketing system, not a manual patch job. Landing pages and vendor coordination handled by a system, not by him.
- A website that matches the real focus. Estate planning positioning finally leading over probate.

What is stopping him:

- Generalist ad vendor. Grow My Ads spend grew $6K→$8K/mo with no cost-per-case data.
- No active web vendor. Prior vendor was terminated — nobody maintains the site now.
- NAP inconsistencies. Avvo, Justia, and Yelp list three different addresses/phone numbers.
- No profit visibility. Revenue and case-value figures weren't shared — spend decisions are blind.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Takes the generalist vendor relationship and DIY landing-page work off his plate.
- Gets the firm's message to finally lead with estate planning instead of probate.

Full Service Marketing — Platinum | $15,997/mo bundled

- Revenue is $3M+ (HubSpot-sourced estimate, not stated on the call) — qualifies for Platinum.
- Platinum's $150,000/mo ad spend cap comfortably covers the $3,500–$14,000/mo recommended range.
- Two-location firm (Jamaica + Garden City) needs geo-coverage a lower tier wouldn't scope for.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for him:

- Gives Kim and Scott coaching support to build the delegation structure currently missing.
- Creates accountability for shifting the practice mix toward estate planning and away from probate.

Elite Coach Plus | $3,200/mo bundled

- Team size was not explicitly confirmed on the call — confirm actual headcount live; a larger confirmed team could support a Master's Circle upgrade.
- Revenue is $3M+, but without a confirmed 5+ dedicated staff count, eligibility rules keep this at Elite Coach Plus rather than Master's Circle.
- No profitability complaints were raised on the call, so a Fractional CFO/COO add-on was not included — revisit if Kim raises profit visibility live.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Turns the firm's already-active $6K–$8K/mo spend into professionally tracked, cost-per-case-informed investment instead of a guess.
- Opens Meta as a genuinely new channel with zero current investment or competing internal campaigns.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $3,500/mo — matches the Estate Planning Google PPC channel minimum, a single-channel floor.
- Aggressive: $14,000/mo — scaled multi-channel budget (Google Search + LSA + Meta) sized to the firm's $3M+ revenue band.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: ~3 cases x $2.25K avg case value = ~$6.75K/mo vs. $3.5K spend = ~1.9x return.
- Aggressive: ~25 cases x $2.25K avg case value = ~$56.25K/mo vs. $14K spend = ~4.0x return.

All figures are estimates using an Estate Planning practice-area default case value (no firm-confirmed figure was available). Not guaranteed.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Estate Planning Google PPC minimum = $3,500 (single active channel floor).
- Aggressive: Blended CPL across Google Search ($135), LSA ($65), and Meta Cold ($55) midpoints, sized to a $14,000/mo multi-channel budget within Platinum's $150,000 cap.
- Total spend at aggressive: $19,197 (Platinum + Elite Coach Plus) + $14,000 ad spend = $33,197/mo ≈ 13.3% of the $250,000/mo revenue estimate ($3M/yr) — well under the 35% cap.

If He Pushes Back

"We're already spending $6K-$8K a month with Grow My Ads — why pay more?"

Grow My Ads is a generalist vendor with no confirmed cost-per-case tracking. Platinum replaces that spend with legal-specific management, NAP cleanup, and geo-pages competitors like Morgan Legal Group and Roman Aminov already have.

"Our reviews already beat the competition — why do we need SEO work?"

True — 4.9 stars and 273 reviews beat every named competitor — but three different addresses and phone numbers across Avvo, Justia, and Yelp are undermining those trust signals in local rankings. NAP cleanup protects the reputation already built.

"Scott is already stretched thin — won't another vendor add more work?"

The opposite: Platinum replaces the DIY landing-page work and vendor coordination Scott already does by hand, and Elite Coach Plus adds coaching support to build the delegation structure that's missing.

"We don't know our exact revenue or case value — how can we trust these ROI numbers?"

All estimates use disclosed Estate Planning practice-area defaults. Establishing cost-per-case tracking in the first 90 days is exactly what turns these projections into confirmed numbers going forward.
