Fabbrini Law Group LLC

Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Jim Fabbrini	$3M+ (HubSpot est.)	5 staff + owner	Stage 3	15% (default)	Chicago, IL (2 loc.)

Dominant Buying Motive: STRATEGIC FREEDOM

Jim wants to stop personally handling daily casework and tech-building, and become a strategic, KPI-driven owner who monitors the numbers instead of building every tool himself.

> "escape daily legal work and focus on business strategy"

> "shift from daily legal work to a strategic, data-driven ownership role, monitoring key performance indicators (KPIs) to identify and fix bottlenecks"

What he wants:

- Step back from casework. A strategic, KPI-driven role, not daily case and tool work.
- One place to see the numbers. A dashboard, not one he builds himself.
- Case flow beyond referrals. A predictable pipeline, not reputation alone.
- Proof the team is real. He's been burned by weak vendor pitches before.

What is stopping him:

- Zero digital visibility. Absent from all 6 local searches tested.
- NAP is fragmented. 4+ address variants, 2 unmerged GBP listings.
- No ops layer. Jim builds his own AI tools/dashboard solo.
- No centralized KPI view. No dashboard tracks case-to-revenue yet.
- Vendor skepticism. Burned by prior Fractional CTO pitches.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Turns 25 years of reputation into a system that produces cases on its own.
- Fixes the NAP/local invisibility losing cases to Disparti, Salvi, and Rosenfeld.
- Establishes a trackable lead-flow KPI his own dashboard is trying to capture.

Full Service Marketing — Platinum | $15,997/mo bundled

- Revenue $3M+ (HubSpot-sourced) qualifies for Platinum per the tier table.
- PI requires at minimum Starter; Platinum justified by total invisibility.
- 2 confirmed locations rule out Essentials-tier regardless of revenue.
- Platinum's $150K/mo ad cap covers both spend ranges recommended here.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for him:

- Dedicated Fractional COO Director builds/runs the KPI dashboard he's building alone.
- Peer group of firm owners solving the same step-back-from-day-to-day problem.
- Moves the operational/strategic workload off his plate without losing accountability.

Master's Circle + FCOO Director | $8,394/mo bundled

- CORRECTED: notes confirm 5 dedicated staff — system's 'under 5 team' default was wrong.
- Revenue $3M+ clears the $2M+ threshold for Master's Circle + FCOO Director.
- FCOO Director matches Jim's goal: strategic, KPI-driven ownership role.
- Includes weekly coaching, masterminds, quarterly + 1 annual in-person workshop.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Puts dollars behind Google Search, LSA, and Meta — channels where competitors are already winning cases that should be his.
- Gives Jim a real, trackable cost-per-case number instead of an unmeasured referral pipeline.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $7,500/mo — minimum viable spend across Google Search, LSA, and Meta for personal injury in a high-competition Chicago market.
- Aggressive: $30,000/mo — scaled toward growth, capped well under Platinum's $150,000 ceiling and the firm's 35% total-spend cap.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: 2-3 cases x $6.5K = $16.9K/mo vs. $7.5K spend = 2.3x return.
- Aggressive: 12-13 cases x $6.5K = $81.9K/mo vs. $30K spend = 2.7x return.

All figures are estimates using a default case value (none was discussed on this call). Not guaranteed.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Accident & Injury blended CPL (~$428 with 20% cushion). $7,500 / $428 = ~17-18 leads x 15% close rate = 2-3 cases.
- Aggressive: No revenue goal stated; used 2x current revenue default ($6M) x 20% / 12 = $100K, x1.5 Chicago Tier 1 multiplier. Capped down to $30,000 by the 35% total-spend rule ($87,500 cap minus $24,391 fixed MRR = $54,112 max).
- Total spend at aggressive: $24,391 + $30,000 = $54,391/mo = 21.8% of revenue. Under the 35% cap.

If He Pushes Back

"This call was supposed to be about a Fractional CTO, not marketing."

Acknowledge that directly — the growth audit surfaced a separate, immediate opportunity (zero digital visibility, NAP fragmented across 4+ addresses) costing him cases today. Flag internally that this is also an unusually strong Legal AI Workforce / Fractional CTO fit and route that conversation to the LAW team in parallel.

"I already get plenty of referrals — why spend on ads?"

Disparti Law Group has ~3,400+ reviews and dominates personal injury search results; Fabbrini did not appear in any of 6 local searches tested despite 25 years in practice. Referrals alone are not converting into digital visibility.

"I built my own AI tools — why pay for a dashboard?"

The FCOO Director builds and runs the KPI dashboard so Jim is no longer the one maintaining it on top of a full caseload — this is delegation of work he is already doing, not duplication.

"Is this within budget?"

Total spend at the aggressive ad level is $54,391/mo, or 21.8% of estimated monthly revenue — comfortably under the firm's 35% total-spend cap.
