Dominant Buying Motive: EQUITY & INDEPENDENCE

Kate wants a partner-driven firm that generates clients and earns real equity — without her personally opening every door.

"No transcript — DBM inferred: 13 years building, NAMWOLF/WBENC certs, 3-partner structure. Confirm on call."

What she wants:

- Partner-driven pipeline. New clients from systems, not only from Kate's network.
- Firm equity. 13 years of building — sellable value beyond personal relationships.
- Freedom from BD. Choose cases and clients — not chase every new relationship.

What is stopping her:

- Broken intake. Contact page returns 404 — warm interest hits a dead end silently.
- No digital presence. No Google Ads, no LSA, no Meta — invisible for construction and employment searches.
- Unclaimed review market. Whiteford Taylor: 7 reviews. Kramon & Graham: 7 reviews. Wide open.
- Revenue unconfirmed. $3M is a RocketReach estimate — confirm on call.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for her:

- Qualified construction and employment inquiries arrive without Kate's personal effort on every relationship.
- NAMWOLF and WBENC certifications become searchable lead channels no competitor can target.

Full Service Marketing Dominate | $10,497/mo bundled

- ~$3M revenue, $6M goal = aggressive; Dominate tier ad cap ($75K) matches projections.
- Contact page 404 requires website rebuild — Full Service includes the rebuild.
- Stand-alone $12,497/mo — bundled saves $2,000/mo.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for her:

- All three partners held to BD and financial KPIs — accountability is not just on Kate.
- NAMWOLF outreach and corporate procurement proposals become documented systems, not personal memory.

Master's Circle | $4,600/mo bundled

- Revenue $1M+, team 5+, dedicated staff — Master's Circle eligibility confirmed.
- No transcript to confirm profit gaps — Fractional CFO deferred; Master's Circle is the right anchor.
- Stand-alone $4,997/mo — bundled saves $397/mo.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for her:

- High-intent commercial clients searching for construction and employment counsel arrive digitally — no personal outreach required.
- Conservative scenario returns ~6.4x; actual case values for construction litigation likely exceed the $5K default used here.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $10,200/mo (PPC $3,500 + LSA $2,000 + Meta Ret $1,200 + Meta Cold $3,500).
- Aggressive: $50,000/mo — within Dominate cap; capped conservatively given no prior ad history.

Estimated ROI:

- Conservative: ~13 cases x $5K = ~$65K/mo vs. $10.2K spend = ~6.4x.
- Aggressive: ~76 cases x $5K = ~$380K/mo vs. $50K spend = ~7.6x.
- Total at aggressive: $65,097/mo = 26.0% of revenue. Under 35% cap.

If She Pushes Back

"We get all our clients through referrals — we have for 13 years."

Referrals cap growth when Kate is in trial. A digital system runs 24/7. Also: the contact page returns a 404 — any referral visiting the website and trying to reach out is silently lost today.

"Our clients are businesses, not people searching Google."

Contractors and executives search Google for urgent construction disputes and employment threats. Business Law CPL in Baltimore: $100–120, far below PI. Whiteford Taylor and Kramon & Graham each have 7 reviews — this digital market is entirely open.

"I am not sure the timing is right."

First 90 days fix the broken contact page and launch ads — minimal time from Kate once onboarded. Every month without action is a month a competitor can claim the local pack before Lawrence Law does.

"How do we know this works for B2B legal?"

NAMWOLF and WBENC certifications create paid search angles no competitor can replicate. Combined, Whiteford Taylor and Kramon & Graham have 14 Google reviews. The bar to digital leadership in this market is the lowest we have audited.
