Dominant Buying Motive: SCALE (inferred)

Hit a $1,000,000 Arizona family law year by closing a $215,000 gap and replacing an agency that stopped delivering.

"ineffective account management"

- No personal motive was stated on this short vendor-evaluation call. Pull exact wording from the recording before the follow-up.

What the firm wants:

- $1,000,000 year. Close the gap from $785,161 in Arizona family law revenue.
- 16 to 17 signed cases a month. That is the lead math presented on the call at a $5,000 retainer.
- A better agency. Faster communication and real progress than Elevato delivered.
- More than PPC. Channels beyond Google search, as the firm already asked for.

What is stopping them:

- Falling leads. Leads have declined since March 2026 under Elevato.
- Low show rate. Fewer than half of free 15-minute consults are kept.
- Shopper leads. Unqualified shoppers and attorney approach drive no-shows.
- Weak LSA management. The firm called the LSA account poorly managed.
- No ROI tracking. Lawmatics is not connected to case management.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for them:

- Replaces a PPC-only vendor with Google, LSA, and Meta run as one system.
- Gives monthly reporting by channel so every dollar is easy to judge.
- Builds toward the 16 to 17 signed cases a month a $1M year needs.

Paid Ads Starter | $3,497/mo flat (no bundle discount)

- Revenue of $785,161 sits in the $500K to $1M Starter band; three offices rule out Essentials.
- Paid Ads Starter ad spend cap is $20,000/mo; the $3,500 to $16,000 range fits inside it.
- Firm already runs about $20K/mo in ads, so ads-only fits. PageSpeed was not obtained; confirm site.
- Ads-only normally pairs with coaching. Seller removed it (Slack, Sept 25, 2026). Confirm approval.

Why No Coaching Package (Yet)

What it keeps simple:

- One focused proposal that replaces Elevato, instead of a bigger ask on a vendor-switch call.
- A clear next step later: fix the consult process once lead flow is steady.

Roadmap talking points (no coaching quoted today) | $0/mo

- Seller dropped Elite Coach Plus per Slack override on Sept 25, 2026. Do not add it back unprompted.
- Phase 2: FCOO Advisor at $3,297/mo for a consistent consultation and follow-up process.
- Phase 3: FCFO Advisor at $3,297/mo for cost per case and profit visibility.
- Team size was not stated (pipeline defaulted to 3). Confirm before suggesting any coaching tier.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for them:

- Keeps the firm visible for family law searches in Tempe, Mesa, and Chandler.
- Lets budget grow only as cost per signed case proves out.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $3,500/mo — Google search minimum for family law.
- Aggressive: $16,000/mo — raised from $14,000 by seller override (Slack, Sept 25, 2026).

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: 4.5 cases x $5K = $22.7K/mo vs. $3.5K spend = 6.5x return.
- Aggressive: 29 cases x $5K = $144.9K/mo vs. $16K spend = 9.1x return.

All figures are estimates. Not guaranteed. Used a 15.6% lead-to-case rate (16.5 cases from 106 leads on the call). At the stated 20% consult rate: 8.3x and 11.6x. Aggressive is above the 16.7 cases a month the goal needs; temper it.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Family law Google PPC minimum $3,500. Blended CPL $100 x 1.2 cushion = $120, so 29 leads.
- Aggressive: $16,000 from the pipeline file. Channel mix weighted by channel minimums gives a $85.93 blended CPL, so 186 leads.
- Total at aggressive: $19,497/mo = 29.8% of $65,430 monthly revenue. Under the 35% cap ($22,900). The current ~$20K Google plus Meta plus fee would pass it.

If She Pushes Back

"We spend about $20,000 a month today. Why is your range lower?"

Leads have fallen since March 2026 at that spend, so more budget is not the fix. At $20K plus Meta plus our fee, spend would pass 35% of monthly revenue. Confirm what number was said on the call.

"Why switch agencies? We will lose momentum."

Momentum is already down: leads fell, LSA was poorly managed, and the agency stayed PPC-only. Davis Miles did not surface in Tempe, Mesa, or Chandler searches, but Arizona Law Group, Hildebrand Law, and Edwards & Petersen did.

"Our real problem is consultation no-shows."

Agree. Fewer than half are kept, and at a 20% close rate each kept consult is worth about $1,000. Ads-side qualification helps now; the FCOO Advisor in Phase 2 fixes the process.
