Dominant Buying Motive: MISSION & SUSTAINABILITY

Libby came back to Logansport to serve her community — she wants a firm that makes that mission financially sustainable for decades.

"I truly believe I was given these gifts or talents and the best way to use them is to help others."

What she wants:

- Community trust. To be the go-to immigration attorney for north Indiana — the name families say without hesitation.
- Sustainable mission. A firm generating reliable income so she can serve her community for decades, not just years.
- Time back. Stop handling every intake call personally — focus on the legal work that actually needs her.

What is stopping her:

- No paid lead generation. Relies on Facebook and word-of-mouth — no predictable system.
- Invisible online. 16 reviews vs. 105–792 for Indianapolis competitors — losing the search battle.
- No intake structure. 2-person team; Libby handles all consultations — bottleneck grows with lead volume.
- Revenue not confirmed. No transcript — verify revenue, close rate, and avg case value on the call.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for her:

- Turns the vacant north Indiana paid search market into a predictable lead flow — stops depending on who Libby knows.
- Spanish-language campaigns reach the bilingual community she built the firm to serve — near-zero local ad competition.

Full Service Marketing — Essentials | $2,397/mo bundled

- Revenue est. $150K–$350K — Essentials appropriate; upgrade to Starter if Jacob confirms $400K+.
- 35% cap: $6,997 total at $3K ad spend = 33.6% of $250K annual revenue — within cap.
- Near-zero local paid competition — lower CPL than most immigration markets in Indiana.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for her:

- Intake systems and accountability to stop being the bottleneck to every client's first experience with the firm.
- Peer community of attorneys navigating Stage 3-to-6 — she is not building this alone.

Elite Coach | $1,600/mo bundled

- Revenue $250K–$400K — Elite Coach is the correct tier. Stand-alone $2,497/mo; saves $897/mo bundled.
- No FCOO/FCFO at this revenue level (under $500K). Phase 2 adds FCOO once firm hits $500K.
- Focus: intake protocols, hiring readiness, financial visibility — the Stage 3 priorities.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for her:

- IIA is the only local firm showing up in paid search — every dollar faces near-zero local competition, meaning lower CPL than a metro market.
- Spanish-language ads reach the Hispanic manufacturing community no competitor is targeting today.

Recommended Range & ROI (estimates — verify case value on call):

- Conservative $3,000/mo: ~4 cases x $3,500 = ~$14,000 revenue. ~4.7x return. Within Essentials $3,500 cap.
- Aggressive $7,000/mo: ~10 cases x $3,500 = ~$35,000 revenue. ~5x return. Above cap — discuss Starter upgrade or 10% overage.
- How calculated: Conservative = immigration minimums x 1.33 Spanish. Aggressive = 2x rev goal x 20% / 12 x Tier 4 geo x 1.33 Spanish minus fee.

Estimates only. Not guaranteed.

If She Pushes Back

"Am I too early — only 13 months old?"

Flora Legal Group already has 406 reviews and geo-targeted Indiana pages. The question is whether IIA claims north Indiana first or plays catch-up after a competitor does.

"I don't know my revenue — how do I know I can afford this?"

Essentials at $3,997/mo meets the 35% cap at $250K annual revenue. Conservative ad ROI covers the investment in 1-2 cases per month.

"I can't handle more leads — I'm the only attorney."

That is the intake problem, not a marketing problem. Elite Coach establishes intake protocols first so lead volume is captured by a system, not Libby personally.

"No local competitors — why the urgency?"

Flora Legal (406 reviews), Banks & Brower (792), and Carolyn Grimes (105) are virtual competitors winning north Indiana searches today. IIA has 16 reviews and no ads.
