

The Fowles Law Firm

Sales Companion | September 15, 2026 | Rep: Dan Bryant

Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Justin Fowles	$500K–$600K	3	Stage 4	~30–32%	Conroe, TX

Dominant Buying Motive: FREEDOM

Justin wants The Fowles Law Firm to run without him within about 3 years, so he can work 10–20 hours a week, largely remote, and be present to homeschool and travel with his two young kids.

"die at the desk"

What he wants:

- A firm that runs without him. Self-managing within ~3 years, not dependent on his daily involvement.
- More time with his kids. Present to homeschool and travel with his two young children.
- A real profit plan. Turn the $1M revenue goal into an actual take-home number, not just a bigger top line.

What is stopping him:

- Zero paid lead gen. No PPC, LSA, or Meta ever run — two named competitors dominate the map-pack instead.
- Single-person intake. Iris covers calls around the clock, no backup, and a 2.5-month Lawmatics CRM lockout.
- No leadership layer. Justin is the only attorney, with no hiring process or KPIs.
- No profit target. Revenue is tracked closely; profit is not.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Gets the firm in front of Conroe searchers who currently only find Doug Atkinson or Brian Foley Law.
- Turns LSA and PPC into the system that lets Justin stop personally out-hustling two entrenched competitors.
- Fixes the buried contact form and cannibalized city pages so existing traffic converts better.

Full Service Marketing — Starter | $4,997/mo bundled

- Revenue ($500K–$600K) places the firm in the $500K–$1M Starter tier ($4,997/mo bundled, $5,697/mo stand-alone).
- Active SEO/web vendor hasn't produced PPC/LSA — existing-vendor override reviewed and NOT applied, since Call 2 was about replacing that vendor (see workings file).
- Starter's $25,000/mo ad spend cap comfortably covers both the conservative and aggressive recommended ranges.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for him:

- Builds the hiring criteria, KPIs, and leadership layer the firm doesn't have today.
- Starts the profit-planning process connecting revenue growth to real take-home income.
- Group coaching and masterminds give Justin outside accountability he doesn't get running the firm solo.

Elite Coach | $2,600/mo bundled

- Revenue band ($400K–$1M) defaults to Elite Coach Plus ($3,200/mo); seller override (Dan, Slack, 9/15/26) downgraded to Elite Coach — a price concession, not a category change. No affordability concern is stated — confirm before presenting.
- Team size (3), no hiring process yet — group format is lower-risk than Master's Circle or an FCOO-inclusive tier.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Converts organic-only demand into a channel Justin doesn't have to personally hustle for.
- Gives the firm a real shot at closing the local map-pack gap against Doug Atkinson (~100% share of voice vs. the firm's ~4%).

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $7,500/mo — Google PPC ($5,500) + LSA ($2,000) minimums for Criminal Defense.
- Aggressive: $11,700/mo — full budget to hit the $1M/3-year revenue goal per the 20% rule.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: 7 cases x $5K = $35K/mo vs. $7.5K spend = 4.7x return.
- Aggressive: 16-17 cases x $5K = $82.5K/mo vs. $11.7K spend = 7.1x return.

All figures are estimates. Not guaranteed.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Criminal Defense minimums: PPC $5,500 + LSA $2,000 = $7,500.
- Aggressive: $1M goal x 20% ÷ 12 = $16,667, Tier 4 (1.0x), minus $4,997 fee = $11,700.
- Aggressive total ($19,297/mo) is ~42% of current revenue — over the 35% cap today, ~23% of the $1M goal. Lead with conservative.

If He Pushes Back

"I'm happy with my current SEO/website vendor."

Iris sees real room for improvement, and the vendor hasn't gotten the firm into PPC or LSA. Firm holds ~4% local map-pack share vs. ~100% for Doug Atkinson.

"I don't have time for another program right now."

Elite Coach builds the hiring criteria and leadership layer Justin needs to step back. Without it, the firm's "vacation test" stays at about one week.

"Can we just start with ads and skip coaching?"

More leads will hit an intake process already run single-handedly by Iris. Coaching builds the team structure to handle that volume.
