Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Nick Yousif	~$570K est. (low conf.)	3 attorneys	Stage 4	15% (default)	Quincy, MA

Dominant Buying Motive: FREEDOM

Nick wants a stable $200k/month firm that no longer depends on him working every call himself, so he can finally drop the second job.

"Nick Yousif works 7-day weeks and a side job (real estate) to cover income gaps caused by a lack of scalable systems and processes."

"Build a sustainable business generating $200k/mo, enabling Nick Yousif to step back from daily operations."

What he wants:

- Drop the second job. He wants firm income stable enough that real estate isn't required to cover gaps.
- A predictable $200k/month. A floor to plan around, not an occasional ceiling.
- Real delegation. Two attorneys already on staff — he wants to actually hand them admin, intake, and follow-up.

What is stopping him:

- SEO collapse. Organic clicks fell ~91% (124/mo to 10-11/mo) after the April move to Quincy.
- Underfunded PPC. Only active paid channel is a $1,500/mo campaign via Convert Marketing — too small to matter.
- NAP/review fragmentation. All 8 directories checked still show the old Brockton address/phone; no confirmed Quincy GBP.
- No delegation or financial visibility. Nick handles all admin/intake personally; no case value or close-rate data exists.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Rebuilds the pipeline the move destroyed — GBP claim, review consolidation, and local SEO across every practice area.
- Adds the Estate Planning and Family Law pivot, funded properly instead of at $1,500/mo.

Full Service Marketing — Starter | $4,997/mo bundled

- Essentials hidden: 4 locations + multiple practice areas (bankruptcy, consumer protection, estate planning, family law, PI listed).
- Revenue not stated (HubSpot est. $570K, low confidence) — Starter holds regardless, since it's under $1M either way.
- Existing-vendor override rejected: Convert Marketing's SEO failed the move; transcript's own next step is a full-service takeover — this is the stated need.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for him:

- Gives Nick a structured path to delegate to Matt McKenna and Hunter Cook — attorneys already on staff, not new hires.
- Builds the systems that let growth translate into freedom instead of more hours.

Elite Coach Plus | $3,200/mo bundled

- Revenue band $400K-$1M supports Elite Coach Plus at any team size — 3 attorneys doesn't change eligibility.
- Includes weekly coaching, practice area masterminds, and quarterly virtual workshops.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Replaces a $1,500/mo campaign that was never going to be enough with a properly resourced multi-channel budget.
- Funds the faster-paying Estate Planning/Family Law pivot alongside continued bankruptcy/consumer protection presence.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $7,500/mo — channel minimums across Estate Planning, Family Law, and continuing Bankruptcy/Consumer Protection.
- Aggressive: $20,000/mo — Starter tier cap (raw 20%-rule math on the stated $200k/mo goal comes in near $47K, well above what this revenue/tier qualifies for today).

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: ~10 cases x ~$4.3K blended case value = ~$44.6K/mo vs. $7.5K spend = ~6x return.
- Aggressive: ~33 cases x ~$4.3K blended case value = ~$143K/mo vs. $20K spend = ~7x return.

All figures are estimates based on industry CPL/close-rate benchmarks. Not guaranteed.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Blended CPL ~$109 (20% cushion) across the practice-area mix; 15% default close rate.
- Aggressive: 20%-rule on the $200K/mo goal ≈ $47K raw — capped at the $20K Starter ceiling; revenue doesn't yet support a tier upgrade.
- Total spend at aggressive runs ~59-63% of current depressed revenue — over the 35% cap. Frame as a future target, not a Day 1 ask.

If He Pushes Back

"We just signed a 6-month contract with Convert Marketing — can we really switch?"

That contract is what's underperforming — SEO failed to manage the move, and $1,500/mo PPC is too small to matter. Nick is already investigating early termination for a full-service takeover.

"How do we know the pivot to Estate Planning and Family Law will work?"

The site already lists both practice areas — just without spend behind them. Estate Planning ($1.5K-$5K+) and uncontested divorce ($5K-$10K) close faster than the bankruptcy work causing today's cash-flow problem.

"$8,197/mo plus ad spend feels like a lot given how volatile revenue is."

Conservative ad spend ($7,500) stays within the 35% cap at today's revenue. Aggressive ($20K) is the Starter ceiling, not a Day 1 requirement — a target for once the pipeline recovers.
