

Lawrence Law Office

Sales Companion | June 29, 2026 | Rep: Dan Bryant

Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Linda J. Lawrence	~$750K est.	~3 (est.)	Stage 3	15% (default)	Columbus, OH

Dominant Buying Motive: FREEDOM

Linda wants a firm that generates income without her daily involvement — a system built on 35 years of credentials, not managed through them.

"No transcript — DBM inferred from career stage: Board Certified Family Law Specialist since 1990, 30+ years of operation, 2 offices. Owner is past the building phase and ready for the freedom phase."

What she wants:

- Predictable client flow. New cases from a system, not from whoever called a referral.
- Less time in intake. Stop being the first call at 7pm — delegate that entirely.
- Income that reflects 35 years of work. Revenue tied to the firm's systems, not her hours.

What is stopping her:

- No paid lead system. All leads are organic and referral-based — outside her control.
- No intake infrastructure. No after-hours coverage; both founders effectively manage intake.
- Competitors accelerating. Joslyn (78 reviews, 4.8★) and Gavvl (90+ reviews, 4.8★) run Google Ads, LSA, and Meta — Lawrence is absent from all three.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for her:

- Columbus prospects find Lawrence before Joslyn or Gavvl — because the firm finally appears where they search.
- Calendar fills from a system. First step toward a firm that generates clients without Linda driving every lead.
- Board Certification and 35 years positioned visibly — a differentiator no less-credentialed competitor can match.

Full Service Marketing — Starter | $4,847/mo bundled

- Revenue ~$750K places the firm in the Starter tier ($400K–$1M). Consistent with HubSpot and research estimate.
- Columbus is Tier 2 — Google Ads, LSA, and Meta are all required to compete with Joslyn and Gavvl.
- Website redesign included — site estimated 8–12 years old; NAP inconsistency across listings dilutes local SEO.
- Stand-alone $5,697/mo — bundling saves $850/mo.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for her:

- Financial clarity from session one. Cost-per-client tracking turns marketing from an expense into a managed asset.
- Intake documented and delegatable. Linda stops managing front-end acquisition personally.
- Weekly accountability. 90-day revenue goals are tracked and adjusted in real time, not just set.

Elite Coach Plus | $3,200/mo bundled

- Revenue $400K–$1M, team ~3 — Elite Coach Plus is the correct tier.
- No financial baseline currently exists — coaching establishes it from session one.
- Practice area masterminds with Columbus-market family law peers facing the same competitive pressures.
- Stand-alone $3,497/mo — bundled saves $297/mo; total bundle saves $1,147/mo vs. stand-alone.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for her:

- Conservative ($3,500/mo): 4–5 cases/mo x $5,000 = $20–25K revenue. ~6x ROAS.
- Aggressive ($14,000/mo): 18–22 cases/mo x $5,000 = $90–110K revenue. ~6–7x ROAS.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $3,500/mo — Google PPC $2,000 + LSA $500 + Meta $1,000. Family law channel minimums (Tier 2).
- Aggressive: $14,000/mo — Starter tier cap. Full-budget approach to dominate Columbus paid search.

Estimated ROI:

- Conservative: 28 leads / $125 CPL x 15% close = 4–5 cases x $5K = ~$20–25K/mo vs. $3.5K spend. ~6x.
- Aggressive: 137 leads / $102 CPL x 15% close = 18–22 cases x $5K = ~$90–110K/mo vs. $14K spend. ~6–7x.

Estimates use $5,000 default case value and 15% close rate (not stated in discovery). Not guaranteed.

How calculated:

- Conservative: Family law Tier 2 channel minimums — PPC $2K + LSA $500 + Meta $1K = $3,500.
- Aggressive: $1.5M goal x 20% / 12 = $25K. Tier 2 (x1.3) = $32.5K. Minus $4,847 fee = $27,653. Capped at $14K (Starter tier).
- At aggressive: $22,047/mo total = 35.3% of revenue — at the cap boundary. Acceptable.

If She Pushes Back

"I already have a strong reputation — why pay for ads?"

Reputation wins the case when someone finds you. Joslyn (78 reviews, 4.8★) and Gavvl (90+ reviews, 4.8★) appear above Lawrence on every Columbus family law search — Linda's reputation only converts prospects who reach her first.

"I've done fine on referrals for 30 years."

Referrals depend on what others do, not what Linda controls. Gavvl didn't have 90 reviews three years ago — they built that aggressively and now own the Columbus 3-pack. Waiting means the gap keeps growing.

"$8,047 a month is a big commitment."

At conservative spend, 4–5 cases at $5,000 average = $20–25K/mo from ads against $3,500 ad spend and $8,047 in fees — net positive in month one when campaigns perform. Bundling already saves $1,147/mo vs. stand-alone.
