Dominant Buying Motive: FREEDOM (Operational Relief)

Scott wants the firm's marketing, intake, and vendor coordination to run without his constant manual intervention — freedom from being the fallback for every gap.

"forced to DIY landing pages causing inconsistency and fatigue"

"crap"

What he wants:

- Automatic intake. Leads followed up and CRM data kept clean without him doing it by hand.
- After-hours coverage that just works. No leads slipping through untracked outside business hours.
- A marketing system, not a manual patch job. Landing pages and vendor coordination handled by a system, not by him.
- A website that matches the real focus. Estate planning positioning finally leading over probate.

What is stopping him:

- Generalist ad vendor. Grow My Ads spend grew $6K→$8K/mo with no cost-per-case data.
- No active web vendor. Prior vendor was terminated — nobody maintains the site now.
- NAP inconsistency is spreading. 2 wrong addresses/phones across directories, now bleeding into Google's own review data.
- No profit visibility. Revenue and case-value figures weren't shared — spend decisions are blind.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Takes the generalist vendor relationship and DIY landing-page work off his plate.
- Gets the firm's message to finally lead with estate planning instead of probate.

Full Service Marketing — Platinum | $15,997/mo bundled

- Revenue is $3M+ (HubSpot-sourced estimate) — qualifies for Platinum.
- Platinum's $150,000/mo ad spend cap comfortably covers the $3,500–$14,000/mo recommended range.
- Two-location firm (Jamaica + Garden City) needs geo-coverage a lower tier wouldn't scope for.
- Grow My Ads covers PPC only, not the full gap — frame as transitioning that spend, not stacking new spend on top.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for him:

- Gives Kim and Scott coaching support to build the delegation structure currently missing.
- Creates accountability for shifting the practice mix toward estate planning and away from probate.

Elite Coach Plus | $3,200/mo bundled

- Team is Kim, Scott, a receptionist, an office manager, plus sales staff — under the 5-person Master's Circle threshold. Confirm exact count live.
- No profitability complaints were raised on the call, so a Fractional CFO/COO add-on was not included — revisit if Kim raises profit visibility live.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Turns the firm's already-active $6K–$8K/mo spend into professionally tracked, cost-per-case-informed investment instead of a guess.
- Opens Meta as a genuinely new channel with zero current investment or competing internal campaigns.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $3,500/mo — matches the Estate Planning Google PPC channel minimum, a single-channel floor.
- Aggressive: $14,000/mo — scaled multi-channel budget (Google Search + LSA + Meta) sized to the firm's $3M+ revenue band.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: ~3 cases x $2.25K avg case value = ~$6.75K/mo vs. $3.5K spend = ~1.9x return.
- Aggressive: ~25 cases x $2.25K avg case value = ~$56.25K/mo vs. $14K spend = ~4.0x return.

All figures are estimates using an Estate Planning practice-area default case value (no firm-confirmed figure was available). Not guaranteed.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Estate Planning Google PPC minimum = $3,500 (single active channel floor).
- Aggressive: Blended CPL across Google Search ($135), LSA ($65), and Meta Cold ($55) midpoints, sized to a $14,000/mo multi-channel budget within Platinum's $150,000 cap.
- Total spend at aggressive: $19,197 (Platinum + Elite Coach Plus) + $14,000 ad spend = $33,197/mo ≈ 13.3% of the $250,000/mo revenue estimate ($3M/yr) — well under the 35% cap.

If He Pushes Back

"We're already spending $6K-$8K a month with Grow My Ads — why pay more?"

Grow My Ads is a generalist vendor with no confirmed cost-per-case tracking, and it only covers PPC — the site, local SEO, directories, and social are still unaddressed. Platinum is a transition of that spend into legal-specific management plus the coverage Grow My Ads never touched, not an added cost on top.

"Our reviews already beat the competition — why do we need SEO work?"

True — 4.9 stars and 275 reviews beat every named competitor, including Morgan Legal Group's 157 — but at least two distinct wrong addresses/phone numbers across Avvo, Justia, and Yelp are now bleeding into Google's own review aggregation. That's an active, worsening leak in the trust signals already earned, not a one-time cleanup.

"Scott is already stretched thin — won't another vendor add more work?"

The opposite: Platinum replaces the DIY landing-page work and vendor coordination Scott already does by hand, and Elite Coach Plus adds coaching support to build the delegation structure that's missing.
