Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Xavier Scarborough	~$12K/mo (~$144K/yr)	1 (solo)	Stage 3	Not tracked	Houston, TX

Dominant Buying Motive: SCALE (inferred)

He never stated it directly; he wants to build a high-revenue estate planning firm fast, even if overload forces him to delegate.

> "everybody makes a million dollars. It's just how fast, right? In 20 years, 30 years or next year, right? (00:12:00)"

> "I'd rather have that problem than not enough, because I totally believe in that concept of getting yourself overworked and overlead, and then you'd be naturally forced to delegate. (00:23:33)"

> "I'd like to get up to six, maybe even eight clients per month. (00:13:09)"

What he wants:

- Google Ads focus. He thinks it is the highest return on his time.
- Six to eight clients a month. Up from about three now, or $280K-$330K a year.
- High-net-worth clients. Basic trust plans run about $4,000 and up.
- A program for new firms. He asked if we offer anything for new law firms.

What is stopping him:

- Tight budget. He said money got tight and has $1,500-$2,000 a month in mind.
- LSAs went quiet. Zero leads in seven days and he cannot say why.
- No tracking. He has never tracked conversion, so 15% is our default.
- Solo, answers his own phones. A virtual paralegal is only an idea so far.
- Burned by coaching. A prior coaching program "doesn't really help you substantively."

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Puts Google Ads in expert hands so his hours go to clients.
- Shows cost per lead and per client by channel for the first time.
- Points ad spend at his six to eight clients a month goal.

Paid Ads Starter | $2,497/mo bundled

- Estate planning plus probate is two practice areas, so Paid Ads Essentials ($1,997) is out.
- Ads-only is an exception: Michael must get approval before quoting it; catalog says pair with coaching.
- Budget drives the fit: Starter plus Elite Coach would be $7,597/mo, about 63% of his revenue.
- Fee plus $3,500 minimum ad spend is $5,997/mo, about 50% of revenue and over the 35% cap.

Coaching Package: Not Recommended (Budget Override)

Why we left it out:

- The call was about Google Ads, not coaching or operations.
- He already paid for a coaching program and says it is why money is tight.

If approval requires pairing: Coach Essentials | $1,000/mo bundled

- Group only; total would be $3,497/mo plus ad spend. Confirm with sales ops.
- Revenue is under $300K: scoping approval is required.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Ties his Google budget to a client target instead of a guess.
- Lets him compare cost per client across Google, LSA, and events.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $3,500/mo — Google search minimum for estate planning.
- Aggressive: $5,700/mo — sized to his six to eight clients a month goal.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: ~3 cases x $4K = ~$13K/mo vs. $3.5K spend = ~3.7x return.
- Aggressive: ~6 cases x $4K = ~$25.3K/mo vs. $5.7K spend = ~4.4x return.

All figures are estimates. Not guaranteed. 15% close rate is our default; he does not track it.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Estate planning minimum: Google PPC $3,500. LSA runs on his own; no Meta = $3,500.
- Aggressive: $305K goal x 20% ÷ 12 = $5,083. Tier 1 (1.5x) = $7,625. Minus $2,497 fee = $5,128. Reverse math gives $5,719, so $5,700.
- Aggressive total: $8,197/mo = 68% of today's revenue. OVER the 35% cap; it fits only near $25K/mo revenue.

If She Pushes Back

"I was thinking $1,500 to $2,000 a month. This is more."

He is right: the fee alone is $2,497, plus a $3,500 minimum ad spend. His Wine and Wills event cost about $1,500 for two clients, roughly $750 each. Open with the conservative level and ask what total he can commit.

"My Local Service Ads did not work. Why would Google Ads?"

His LSAs ($444 a week, $2,000 monthly max) show zero leads in seven days, and he has never tracked conversion. His first two clients came from early ads. Reporting by channel finds the cause.

"I will keep you in mind when I am doing a little better."

Each month on referrals alone is about three clients. Houston firms like Holmes Law appear to hold deep review bases (counts unverified; confirm live before quoting). Offer a conservative start.
