Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Helbert Lopez, CEO	Not confirmed (est. $400K–$1M)	5 attorneys, 3 offices	Stage 4	15% (default)	Tampa / Orlando / Dade City, FL

Dominant Buying Motive: FREEDOM + SCALE

Helbert wants a firm that runs itself — so he can pursue his outside business interests and build real wealth without the firm requiring his daily presence.

"No transcript available. DBM inferred from context: Helbert Lopez (CEO, Super Lawyers 2026) maintains a DC real estate investment email, signaling active outside ventures and a preference for a self-managing, scalable firm."

What he wants:

- A firm that grows without him. Five attorneys and three offices should run without the CEO in every decision.
- Predictable paid lead flow. A system that fills all three offices with qualified cases every month — no referral dependency.
- Freedom to invest elsewhere. Real estate activity signals he is building wealth beyond the firm and needs it to fund itself.

What is stopping him:

- No paid marketing. Absent from Google Ads, LSA, and Meta — entire lead flow depends on organic and referrals.
- 3-pack invisibility. Not in the local pack for family law, bankruptcy, or immigration in Tampa despite 100 reviews at 4.9 stars.
- No management layer. Three offices without accountability structure means owner dependency grows with the firm.
- No profit visibility. Revenue, margins, and cost per client are all unconfirmed.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Builds a multichannel lead flow — Google Ads, LSA, Meta — filling three offices without Helbert sourcing clients personally.
- Activates the Spanish-language advantage already in the firm — 'Se Habla Espanol' and immigration become paid channels with lower CPL.

Full Service Marketing Starter | $4,847/mo bundled

- Revenue est. $400K–$1M; Starter tier appropriate. Essentials hidden above $400K.
- 2024 redesign is solid — CTA simplification and location pages needed, not full rebuild.
- Three GBP listings and review acquisition for Tampa, Orlando, and Dade City included.
- Spanish-language ad groups (family law + immigration) included — lower CPL, less competition.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for him:

- Turns a three-office firm from owner-managed to team-led — accountability structure, KPIs, and quarterly planning cadence.
- Gives Helbert visibility into the firm without requiring his daily presence — the structure that makes his real estate focus possible.

Elite Coach Plus | $3,200/mo bundled

- Five attorneys and three offices — exactly the stage where coaching is the difference between scaling and fragmenting.
- No COO or management layer confirmed — coaching fills this gap with planning rhythm and accountability.
- Weekly coaching, practice area masterminds, quarterly workshops, and annual in-person summit included.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Paid lead flow across family law, bankruptcy, and immigration — filling three offices without Helbert sourcing clients personally.
- Gets into LSA and Google Ads before competitors further entrench quality score and review count advantages.

Range: $3,000–$5,000/mo | ROI estimates (defaults — no transcript):

- Conservative ($3,000): ~10 leads x 15% = 1–2 cases x $3,500 = $3,500–$7,000/mo. ~2x return.
- Aggressive ($5,000): ~20 leads x 15% = 2–4 cases x $3,500 = $7,000–$14,000/mo. ~3x return.
- Conservative = PPC $1,500 + LSA $1,000 + Meta $500. Aggressive = Starter tier cap. Tampa Tier 2 (1.3x). Spanish 1.33x.

Estimates only. Actual results vary. Case values use practice area defaults — no transcript available.

If He Pushes Back

"We already have a website and referrals are working."

Referrals don't scale and don't fill three offices. All Family Law Group (155 reviews, ads + LSA) captures every Tampa search this firm misses. Referrals are a ceiling — not a growth strategy.

"I'm not sure we're ready for paid ads."

Competitors holding Tampa's 3-pack and LSA slots — Gina Rosato (30 years), Robert Geller (7,000+ cases) — have entrenched quality score advantages. Every month of delay, they extend that lead. The window is open now.

"The budget feels large without knowing our revenue."

At est. $600K annual ($50K/mo), the $8,047 SMB fee is 16% of monthly revenue — well under 35%. Adding $3,000–$5,000 ad spend brings total to 22–26%. The math works even at conservative estimates.
