Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Kerry O'Brien	~$1.8–2M gross (unconfirmed)	6 (1 attorney)	Stage 3	15% (assumed)	Los Alamitos, CA

Dominant Buying Motive: SECURITY

Kerry wants a steady, predictable flow of cases so he never has an empty pipeline again.

> "now that my caseload has dwindled, you know, I don't want to be sitting here like in a year from now going, oh, geez, where's all the clients?"

> "more predictable leads, more phone calls coming in."

> "if I'm getting at least 10 cases a month, that, you know, consistently from between now and the next year, that would be great."

What he wants:

- Steady case flow. At least 10 new cases a month, consistently, through next year.
- A fuller caseload. He calls 200 to 300 ideal; he is at about 60 as cases settle.
- A plan by year-end. He wants 2027 to start "off and running."
- A clean new brand. Website, Google listing, and social all moved to O'Brien Law Group PC.

What is stopping him:

- Nervous about paid ads. He has never run them and needs to know it will work.
- Fear of losing money. He can afford $30K a month if needed but will not break even on it.
- Broken Google listing. It shows a tax office address, the old name, and a generic category.
- Stale website. Footer says 2023, old brand, and mobile load is 7.5 seconds.
- Big LA firms. He knows he cannot out-spend them, so nearby cities are the entry point.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Replaces waiting on referrals with a system that brings in calls every month.
- Puts him at the top in nearby cities like Anaheim instead of buried in Los Angeles.
- Fixes the listing, name, and website so the new firm brand is consistent everywhere.

Full Service Marketing — Growth | $8,997/mo stand-alone (no bundle)

- Revenue of about $1.8–2M (gross, soft-confirmed) falls in the $1M–$2M Growth tier.
- Personal injury rules out Essentials, and revenue is above the Starter band.
- Seller locked marketing only: coaching and AI Workforce were dropped per Slack on Oct 26.
- One bundle-eligible product means stand-alone pricing, so there are no bundle savings.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Buys visibility on high-intent car accident searches in Long Beach, Anaheim, and nearby cities.
- Makes spend measurable, so he can see cost per case before he scales.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $10,000/mo — MVA Google search minimum; he said $30K/mo is affordable if needed.
- Aggressive: $40,000/mo — inside the $50,000 Growth cap; reaches his 10-case goal.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: 2.5 cases x $5K = $12.6K/mo vs. $10K spend = 1.3x return.
- Aggressive: 12.1 cases x $5K = $60.5K/mo vs. $40K spend = 1.5x return.

All figures are estimates. Not guaranteed. $5K case value and 15% close rate are assumed; Kerry gave no figure.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: MVA Google search minimum $10,000. Mix 60/20/10/10 gives $496 blended CPL, +20% cushion = $595.
- Aggressive: 20% rule gave $133K ($3.8M x 20% ÷ 12, Tier 1 x1.5, Spanish x1.5, less $8,997 fee), far over the cap, so $40,000 holds.
- Total at aggressive: $48,997/mo = 30.9% of gross revenue. Under the 35% cap. Confirm net revenue first.

If He Pushes Back

"I don't want to break even paying $30,000 or lose money."

Estimates are 1.3x at $10K and 1.5x at $40K on first-case fees alone. Start at the low end, track cost per case monthly, and scale only when the numbers hold.

"I haven't done paid ads. I'm really nervous by it."

LegalMatch is first-come, first-served. Ads put him in control. Start with Google search and LSAs, which are pay-per-lead, in cities where he can rank first.

"I was quoted about $30,000 a month for 10 clients by another company."

Do not claim we are cheaper. Ask what that quote included, who owns the ad accounts, and what tracking he gets. We report cost per case monthly.
