Dominant Buying Motive: SCALE & DOMINATE (inferred)

Michael is pushing RMD Law into new states and a new practice area — success means dominating every market the firm enters, not just holding steady in Irvine.

No verbatim quotes available (Fathom call summary) — DBM inferred, confirm with Michael next call.

What he wants:

- Regain the case pace. Get back to 50+ signings/month after slipping to 30.
- Win new markets outright. Dominate Austin, Seattle, Dallas, and Houston the way RMD Law already leads in Irvine.
- Launch employment law cleanly. Resolve the site-structure decision and get the new practice generating cases.
- Make the $80K/month prove itself. Know which channels are actually producing signed cases.

What is stopping him:

- Budget concentration risk. $50K of the $80K/month budget rides on one volatile channel (Yelp Ads).
- Aged LSA account. Underperforming due to poor ranking, in the firm's own words.
- Zero 3-pack visibility in 4 of 5 priority markets. Sacramento, San Diego, San Bernardino, Austin.
- No profit visibility. No revenue or margin figure discussed despite the spend level.
- Decisions still route through Michael. Channel mix and new-practice structure sit with ownership, not a team.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Turns the existing $80,000/month budget into one coordinated system across all five priority markets instead of one volatile channel.
- Builds the local SEO and review foundation Austin, Seattle, Dallas, and Houston will need before RMD Law's name means anything there.
- Gives Michael one accountable team for channel mix, instead of him reallocating budget himself.

Full Service Marketing — Dominate | $10,497/mo bundled

- Revenue re-estimated at $2M-$3M from $80K/mo sustained spend + firm scale — HubSpot's raw $1.98M midpoint undersells it.
- Multiple locations and practice areas already disqualify Essentials regardless of revenue.
- Dominate's $100,000 ad cap comfortably covers the firm's current $80,000/month budget.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for him:

- Gives Michael a structured way to delegate channel-mix and new-market decisions instead of owning every one personally.
- Builds the operational leadership layer needed to launch employment law and enter Seattle, Dallas, and Houston without adding to his own workload.
- Master's Circle connects Michael with peer firm owners navigating the same multi-market scale-up.

Master's Circle + FCOO Director | $8,394/mo bundled

- Team confirmed 5+ with dedicated marketing staff (CMO, Marketing Director) — qualifies for Master's Circle.
- Revenue estimate of $2M-$3M meets the FCOO Director tier's $2M+ threshold.
- Price includes Elite Coach group deliverables (coaching, masterminds, workshops) — no separate charge.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Converts the ad budget from a black box into tracked channels with a known cost per case.
- Gives Michael a floor (conservative) and a ceiling (aggressive) to plan expansion budget against, both under the firm's 35% total-spend guardrail.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $19,500/mo — minimum viable spend across recommended channels.
- Aggressive: $54,000/mo — capped by the 35% total-spend guardrail, not the tier's $100,000 ad cap.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: ~5 cases x $6.5K = $32.5K/mo vs. $19.5K spend = 1.7x return.
- Aggressive: ~18 cases x $6.5K = $117K/mo vs. $54K spend = 2.2x return.

All figures are estimates. Not guaranteed.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: MVA minimums: PPC $10,000 + LSA $2,000 + Meta Retargeting $1,500 + Meta Lead Gen $6,000 = $19,500.
- Aggressive: 20%-rule and reverse-math both exceeded the tier cap; capped by the firm's 35% total-spend rule instead.
- Total at aggressive: $18,891 fees + $54,000 ads = $72,891/mo = ~35.0% of est. monthly revenue — at the cap.

If He Pushes Back

"We're already spending $80K/month — why spend more?"

You don't need to — this redirects the existing $80,000/month. $50,000 rides on one volatile channel (Yelp Ads, 5-20 signups/mo) today; Dominate coordinates it across five markets instead.

"Our Neil Patel contract doesn't end until August — why now?"

That's exactly why now matters — RMD Law has zero strategic marketing partner starting September without a transition plan in place first.

"We don't know our exact revenue — is this the right tier?"

HubSpot's $1.98M estimate undersells the firm — $960K/yr in ad spend alone implies revenue well above $2M. Confirm against financials before signing (workings file).

"Why add coaching/ops on top of marketing?"

Every new market — Austin already, Seattle/Dallas/Houston next — routes through Michael personally today. FCOO Director support is what lets that stop.
