

Rye Law

Sales Companion | August 5, 2026 | Rep: Jacob Meissner

Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Rick Rye	~$570K (est., low conf.)	5 (1 atty + 4 staff)	3 - Solo	15% (default)	Toronto/GTA (4 offices)

Dominant Buying Motive: FREEDOM

Rick wants Rye Law to run independently of him day-to-day, using automation and a lean team instead of hiring more staff, so he can step back from being personally entrenched in operations.

"Build a scalable business that runs independently, allowing for more personal freedom and less direct management."

"Leverage automation and "virtual avatars" to avoid hiring more staff — a "sweet spot" for efficiency."

What he wants:

- A firm that runs itself, not just a bigger one.
- More personal freedom — time back, not just revenue.
- Efficiency over headcount — automation instead of hiring.

What is stopping him:

- Cash flow timing. ~$60K in year-end expenses + ~$50K unbilled AR are tying up his funds.
- No lead gen system. Zero paid or organic presence across all five practice areas.
- He is the bottleneck. Personally entrenched, no leadership layer beneath him.
- Guarantee skepticism. Flagged enforceability concerns on the guarantee — don't oversell it.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Gives Rye Law its first real lead gen system across all five practice areas, instead of referrals alone.
- Frees Rick from being the only source of new business — step one toward the independence he wants.

Full Service Marketing — Starter | $4,997/mo bundled

- 4 locations + 5 practice areas make Essentials ineligible — Starter or above is required.
- ~$570K estimated revenue (low confidence, HubSpot-sourced) independently qualifies for Starter.
- Rick was already evaluating ~$5,000/mo — Starter's $4,997/mo bundled matches almost exactly.
- Starter's $20,000 ad-spend cap comfortably covers the $3,500-$11,500/mo range below.

Why No Coaching Package (Yet)

What holding it back does for him:

- Keeps the ask at $4,997/mo — what Rick already reviewed — not $8,197/mo before he's re-engaged.
- Avoids compounding his cash-flow concern with a second new commitment he didn't ask for.

Elite Coach Plus | held for Phase 2 ($3,200/mo if added later)

- OVERRIDE APPLIED: Rick postponed the existing $5K/mo ask over ~$60K expenses + ~$50K AR — adding coaching now raises the ask 64% above that.
- `package_decision.json` paired Starter + Elite Coach Plus at $8,197/mo total — intentionally overridden; do not present that number to Rick.
- Revenue and team size would otherwise qualify — reintroduce coaching in the Phase 2 conversation, not this re-engagement.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Turns paid traffic into a predictable stream of new cases across all 5 practice areas instead of relying on referrals.
- Scales with the firm — starting conservative while AR clears, then expanding once cash flow allows.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $3,500/mo — minimum viable spend across recommended channels, well under the 35% cap.
- Aggressive: $11,500/mo — capped by the 35% total-spend rule, not the tier's $20,000 ceiling.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: 4 cases x $4.7K = $18.8K/mo vs. $3.5K spend = 5.4x return.
- Aggressive: 16 cases x $4.7K = $75.2K/mo vs. $11.5K spend = 6.5x return.

All figures are estimates. Not guaranteed.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Blended practice-area minimums across Immigration, Family, Litigation, Real Estate, and Business Law ~$3,500.
- Aggressive: 2x current revenue ($1.14M) x 20% / 12 = $19,000. Minus $4,997 mgmt fee = $14,003 uncapped.
- Total spend at aggressive: $4,997 + $11,500 = $16,497/mo = 34.7% of revenue. Under the 35% cap (uncapped figure would have been 37.9% — corrected down).

If He Pushes Back

"We already said we need to wait until January."

This proposal is built around the exact $5,000/mo figure Rick already reviewed — Starter alone, no added coaching — so there's nothing new to reconsider financially. It's ready to activate the moment the AR clears.

"The guarantee isn't enforceable here, so how do I know this works?"

Point to the named local competitors already outperforming Rye Law in his own market: Chaudhary Law Office (300 reviews, 4.8 stars), Zinati Kay (27,000+ closings marketed), Simple Divorce (doors away from his own office). The risk isn't the guarantee — it's the gap widening every month with zero paid presence.

"I don't have a marketing budget line yet — can this wait until the AR is in?"

Recommend using part of the ~$50K AR collection itself to fund the first 1-2 months of ad spend once collected, so the campaign can launch without waiting for a completely clean slate.

"Is $5K/mo actually going to move the needle for 5 practice areas?"

Starter's $20,000 ad-spend cap and the conservative-to-aggressive $3,500-$11,500/mo range are both scoped specifically to cover all 5 areas — this isn't a single-practice budget stretched thin.

Investment At A Glance
