Sales Companion | September 18, 2026 | Rep: Jacob Meissner

Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Vanessa Burdick	Not stated (per-case)	Solo (1)	3	15% (default)	New York, NY

Dominant Buying Motive: FREEDOM + NICHE DOMINANCE

Vanessa wants a self-managing, CEO-level practice built on high-value private felony and homicide cases — not another job trading hours for low per-case pay.

"Vision: Build a self-managing firm to enable a hands-off, CEO-level role."

"No website, Google Business Profile, or formal intake system."

"Payment is per-case, not monthly, and rates are low."

What she wants:

- A self-managing, CEO-level practice. Not trading hours for low per-case pay.
- Off assigned-counsel volume. Fewer, higher-value private felony/homicide cases.
- $700K-$800K profit within 6-7 years. A specific, stated long-term goal.
- Foundation before marketing. Systems, hiring, and fee structure first.

What is stopping her:

- Zero digital footprint. No website, GBP, or online presence of any kind.
- No intake process. Nothing converts a future inquiry into a retained client.
- Solo, no staff. She personally handles every case and admin task.
- No private fee structure. Compensation is per-case assigned-counsel pay only.
- Well-funded competitors own the niche. Spodek and Tsigler dominate her target terms.

Why No Marketing Package Yet

What it does for her:

- Protects her spend until a website, GBP, and intake process exist to receive the leads.
- Matches the phased, foundation-first engagement already proposed on the call.

No Marketing Package (Phase 1) | $0/mo

- This was not a standard marketing/intake-growth call — do not push a marketing bundle.
- No website, GBP, or intake system exists today — ad spend now has nowhere to send leads.
- Original HubSpot-driven suggestion (Elite Coach Plus/Starter marketing) was not transcript-stated.
- Seller override: Jacob dropped Full Service Marketing entirely for this deal via Slack, 9/10/26.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for her:

- Builds the intake, hiring, and fee-structure frameworks before marketing spend makes sense.
- 1:1 support sequencing the shift from assigned-counsel work to private casework.

Coach Essentials Plus | $2,497/mo bundled

- Matches the $2,497/mo Phase 1 coaching figure already discussed on the call.
- Sold standalone — no marketing to bundle against, so bundled = stand-alone (no discount).
- 4-month-old firm, no tracked revenue — Budget-Reality Override rules out Elite Coach Plus.

Why This Future Ad Spend (Phase 3 — Not Sold Today)

What it does for her:

- Shows what marketing could look like once the foundation is in place — not sold today.
- Niche case value ($25K–$150K/case) shows strong potential return once she is ready.

Recommended Ad Spend Range (Phase 3 planning estimate):

- Conservative: $5,000/mo — Criminal Defense + High-competitiveness NYC floor.
- Aggressive: $18,750/mo — 20% rule vs. the $700K–$800K profit goal, NYC Tier 1.

Estimated Return on Investment (all estimates):

- Conservative: ~$100K/mo vs. $5K spend = ~20x. Realistic capacity: 1–3 cases/mo.
- Aggressive: ~$425K/mo vs. $18.75K spend = ~23x. Mechanical case count (~17/mo) exceeds solo capacity — do not quote it to the client.

All figures are estimates. Not guaranteed.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Criminal Defense + High-competitiveness NYC floor = $5,000 min.
- Aggressive: $750K goal midpoint x 20% / 12 = $12,500 x NYC Tier 1 (1.5x) = $18,750.

If She Pushes Back

"Why isn't SMB Team recommending marketing? I need cases now."

The call itself was framed around building operational readiness first. She has no website, GBP, or intake process today, so marketing spend now would generate inquiries with nowhere to go. The roadmap lays out exactly when marketing gets added in Phase 3.

"$2,497/month feels like a lot for a firm that's only 4 months old."

This matches the $2,497/mo Phase 1 coaching figure she already discussed on the call. It is scoped to build the intake, hiring, and fee-structure foundation before any marketing spend — not a marketing bundle.

"How do I know this gets me to $700K–$800K in profit?"

Without a private fee structure or financial visibility today, there is no way to measure progress toward that goal. Coach Essentials Plus builds exactly that tracking system, and the roadmap shows when marketing, hiring, and AI tooling get added as the firm is ready.
