

Gourjian Law

Sales Companion | September 8, 2026 | Rep: Nick Holderman

Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Varand Gourjian	$3M+ gross, 60% margin	8 attys / unclear staff	3	N/A (hourly GC)	Glendale, CA

Dominant Buying Motive: SCALE THE FIRM'S CAPACITY

Varand wants to keep hiring attorneys who can each generate $650K-$700K, without the firm's growth staying permanently capped by his own personal referral network.

"built entirely on referrals"

"60% profit margins"

"consistent 20%+ annual growth"

What he wants:

- Keep hiring rainmaking attorneys. Each new hire is expected to generate $650K-$700K.
- Build the "branded play." Content and authority marketing, not consumer-style PPC.
- Reduce referral dependence. A visible market presence that works even when he's not the one introducing a client.
- Put profit to work. Turn his stated ~20% reinvestment appetite into an actual plan.

What is stopping him:

- Zero visibility. The firm does not appear in organic or paid search for its own practice areas.
- No content asset. The site's "News Feed" is syndicated news, not firm-authored writing.
- No intake system. Every inquiry funnels through one email inbox with no tracking.
- No ops layer. A lean, top-heavy attorney team with nobody dedicated to growth operations.
- Directory mismatch. FindLaw/Martindale/Yelp still show the legacy "Gourjian Law Group" bankruptcy branding.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Builds real market authority instead of relying solely on personal relationships.
- Gives his next attorney hires a firm with visible market presence behind them, not just a referral book.
- Lets his 21-year reputation keep working for him even when he isn't the one making the introduction.

Full Service Marketing — Dominate | $12,497/mo

- Revenue of $3M+ gross ties to the Dominate tier on SMB Team's marketing table.
- No coaching package is paired here, so this is priced at the $12,497/mo stand-alone rate, not the $10,497/mo bundled rate.
- Seller-reviewed override (Slack, 9/9/26): dropped the originally proposed Platinum + Elite Coach Plus bundle in favor of Dominate stand-alone.
- Scoped around content, local SEO, and directory cleanup — not a PPC-volume funnel — matching what was actually discussed on the call.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Tests content distribution and visibility at low cost, without shifting into consumer-style PPC volume tactics.
- Every dollar spent claims visibility no named competitor is currently paying for.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $4,500/mo — minimum viable spend to start testing content distribution.
- Aggressive: $18,000/mo — well under Dominate's $100,000 ad spend cap.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: ~5 inquiries x $5K = ~$25.5K/mo vs. $4.5K spend = ~5.7x return.
- Aggressive: ~25 inquiries x $5K = ~$122.7K/mo vs. $18K spend = ~6.8x return (mechanical ceiling only — see note).

All figures are estimates using the Business Law CPL proxy (no CPL table exists for outside GC/B2B). This firm's real addressable search volume is lower than a consumer practice area, so treat the aggressive scenario as a ceiling, not a forecast. Do not quote lead counts to the client.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Business Law Google Search CPL $110 x 1.2 cushion = $132 blended. $4,500 / $132 = ~34 leads x 15% close = ~5 inquiries.
- Aggressive: Same $110 CPL, no cushion. $18,000 / $110 = ~164 leads x 15% = ~25 inquiries — not realistic for this niche B2B market; shown for protocol completeness only.
- Total spend at aggressive: $12,497 + $18,000 = $30,497/mo = ~12.2% of ~$250K monthly revenue. Under the 35% cap.

If He Pushes Back

"We've never needed marketing before — why start now?"

Growth is capped by referrals alone, and Babachanian already outranks Gourjian Law for identical GC services — the market is starting to move even though the phone still rings today.

"Traditional legal marketing doesn't work for our clients."

Agreed — that's why this is scoped around content and authority (the "branded play" from the call), not a PPC-volume funnel. Ad spend here is modest and targeted, not a shift into consumer-style marketing.

"Is $12,497/month worth it for a firm already doing $3M?"

At ~$250K/month revenue, this is under 5% of monthly revenue on its own, well inside the 35% cap. Varand already said on the call he's open to reinvesting ~20% of revenue (~$600K/year) toward growth.

"We don't have anyone to manage this internally."

That's the point of Full Service Marketing — SMB Team runs the day-to-day so nobody on the lean, top-heavy attorney team has to own it.
