Dominant Buying Motive: FREEDOM

More profit without more hours, so he is home for his kids.

> "Increase in profit, but, like, not extracting too much time either."

> "I got small children and, you know, sort of the work-life balance thing. Like, you know, still need to maintain that."

> "if I can get six to eight, or six to ten, I would say, we'll be fine."

What he wants:

- Steady retainer cases. Six to ten a month instead of about two.
- Profit without the hours. Growth that does not cost family time.
- A firm that stands on its own. Succession without the founder's network.
- AI and marketing, soon. He wants to start sooner rather than later.

What is stopping him:

- Referral-only flow. About two new clients a month, in hot and cold quarters.
- A bad ad trial. Ads ran well over cap and brought contingency leads.
- Cost worry. Budget is $6-8K (it depends); cost is his main concern.
- The founder decides. His father makes the calls and was not on the call.
- Low urgency on intake. He says intake is fine at today's volume.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- A steady local lead source next to referrals, so slow quarters matter less.
- Retainer-focused bankruptcy leads, not contingency cases that pay months later.
- A website and listings that match the firm he wants to build.

Full Service Marketing — Essentials | $3,497/mo bundled

- Lowest-cost Full Service tier; fits his $6-8K all-in budget.
- Starter ($4,997) leaves under $2K for ads; the minimum is $3,000.
- Essentials needs one practice area: scope to bankruptcy; confirm.
- Dated Wix site with mixed messaging, so Full Service over ads-only.

Why This AI Package

What it does for him:

- AI handles follow-ups, status updates, drafts, and reminders.
- Attorneys stay on bigger cases; a closer-to-autopilot practice area.

AI Workforce Pro – Starter (3 users) | $1,050/mo bundled

- Three users at $350 each per month; Starter covers 1-4 users.
- Includes a weekly AI Implementation Session; 1M credits per user.
- AI-only ($1,050) is the fallback; confirm AI delivery capacity first.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Puts budget on bankruptcy searches from people ready to hire and pay a retainer.
- Keeps spend under a firm monthly limit after the last trial ran over.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $3,000/mo — the minimum for any paid ads.
- Aggressive: $3,450/mo — the top of his budget after fees.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative (est.): 3.9 cases x $1,750 = ~$6.8K/mo vs. $3.0K spend = 2.3x return.
- Aggressive (est.): 5.4 cases x $1,750 = ~$9.4K/mo vs. $3.45K spend = 2.7x return.

All figures are estimates. Not guaranteed.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: $3,000 absolute minimum. Bankruptcy channel minimums (PPC $4,500 + LSA $2,000) exceed budget: paid ads team review.
- Aggressive: $8,000 budget ceiling minus $4,547 fees = $3,453, rounded to $3,450. The 20% rule on a ~$1M goal (~$16.7K) is out of budget.
- Blended CPL $96 (60% Google, 40% LSA), +20% on conservative; 15% close rate default; $1,750 case value. Total at aggressive: $7,997/mo = 32.0% of ~$25K monthly revenue. Under the 35% cap.

If He Pushes Back

"I need to run this by my father."

He said his father "trusts my judgment." Offer a one-page founder summary and invite him to the Oct 30 call.

"Last time we spent almost double what we planned."

The trial planned $18K and spent about $30K. Now spend is a fixed $3,000-$3,450 a month, aimed at bankruptcy, with injury terms blocked.

"It really depends on the cost."

Fees $4,547 plus $3,000-$3,450 ads is $7,547-$7,997, inside his $6-8K. AI only is $1,050 a month, month-to-month.
