Dominant Buying Motive: UNKNOWN (NO CALL YET)

No transcript exists. Ask what growth should let the owner do, then use their exact words.

- No prospect quotes available. The report uses public-web findings only and contains no quotes.

What the firm likely wants (to confirm):

- Predictable cases. A steady flow of high-value injury cases beyond referrals.
- Visibility. To be first in Tallahassee for car, truck, nursing home and malpractice searches.
- Conversion. Web visitors who reach out should sign, not wait or leave.
- Freedom to grow. Growth that does not depend on any one person (inferred, ask).

What is in the way:

- Mobile speed. Lighthouse mobile 33/100, LCP 21.3 s; desktop 94/100.
- Slow reply promise. The form says an attorney reaches out in 24 to 48 hours.
- Messy listings. Firm name varies across directories; FindLaw shows Criminal Law.
- Unseen channels. Google, LSA, Meta, map pack and reviews not observed (tooling limits).
- Unknown numbers. Revenue, close rate, case value and budget not yet stated.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for her:

- Turns a 35-year reputation into one system covering site, local SEO and ads.
- Puts the firm in front of high-intent injury searches across Google, LSA and Meta.
- Gives one accountable team and one report from first click to signed case.

Full Service Marketing, Platinum | $18,997/mo stand-alone

- Seller locked Platinum only at stand-alone price (Slack, 10/21/26).
- Revenue floor $3M+ (HubSpot, unverified) meets the Platinum tier minimum.
- Mobile score under 50 means a rebuild, which requires Full Service.
- Four case types and a $150K ad cap leave room to scale spend.

Why No Coaching Package, and Confirm Before the Call

Why the plan is marketing only:

- The decision file paired Elite Coach Plus; the seller removed it.
- No call has shown a coaching or operations need yet.
- FCOO and FCFO are in the roadmap for later phases.

Confirm before the call

- Identity mismatch. The trigger name is James Patrick Barrett, but bllegal.com is Brooks LeBoeuf (Tallahassee). Confirm the prospect.
- Review counts. All competitor counts are unconfirmed; none are in the report. Check Google live.
- Existing vendor. Ask who runs the site and any marketing today.
- Approvals. Aggressive spend over $25K needs scoping approval.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for her:

- Captures prospects who are searching for an injury lawyer in Tallahassee today.
- Shows which channels earn signed cases, so spend can shift toward what works.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $7,500/mo — minimum viable spend across Google and Meta retargeting.
- Aggressive: $30,000/mo — adds LSA and Meta cold traffic to scale volume.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: ~1.5 cases x $6.5K = ~$10K/mo vs. $7.5K spend = ~1.3x (estimate).
- Aggressive: ~9 cases x $6.5K = ~$58.5K/mo vs. $30K spend = ~2.0x (estimate).

All figures are estimates. Not guaranteed. Uses a 15% close rate and the $5K–$8K injury default case value (midpoint $6.5K), not the firm's own numbers.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Injury minimums: Google $6,000 + Meta retargeting $1,200 = $7,200, raised to the $7,500 PI floor.
- Aggressive: Set at $30,000 by the pipeline. A 20% rule on the $3M floor with a 2x goal would give about $81K; held lower as revenue is unverified.
- Total at aggressive: $48,997/mo = 19.6% of the $3M floor ($250K/mo). Under the 35% cap.

If She Pushes Back

"$18,997 a month with no bundle discount is a lot."

It covers the rebuild, local SEO and three ad channels in one team. A coaching or ops bundle can be added later, and ad spend flexes from $7,500.

"Our website is fine; it looks great."

On desktop it is 94/100, but on mobile it is 33/100 with a 21-second load. Injury searches skew mobile.

"We do not want to look like TV and billboard lawyers."

Their own site says not to pick a lawyer from a TV ad. Search and retargeting reach people already looking, with trust-first video and results.
