Reagan Butts	$500K (goal $650-750K)	6 total	3 - Solo	15% (default)	Tyler, TX

Dominant Buying Motive: PREDICTABILITY

A pipeline predictable enough to hire proactively and build the 3-5 attorney, $2-3M firm he's targeting, without losing the white-glove service that built his reputation.

"Feast or famine" new matter acquisition — 0 to 6 a month, no way to predict which."

"Prioritizes a "white glove" client experience and wants to avoid losing leads to slow response times."

What he wants:

- A predictable pipeline. New matters stop swinging between 0 and 6 a month.
- To hire proactively, not reactively. Tired of hiring only after he's already underwater.
- A 3-5 attorney, $2-3M boutique firm. His stated 3-year target.
- To keep the white-glove experience. Growth can't cost the service quality that built his reputation.

What is stopping him:

- Zero paid marketing history. 95%+ of clients come from referrals; no paid ads have ever run.
- No scalable intake process. Reagan personally fields nearly every inbound prospect.
- Live site credibility gaps. Lorem Ipsum testimonials and a mismatched Avvo address.
- No cost tracking. No cost-per-case benchmark to evaluate the $10K/mo agency proposal.
- Already at capacity. 50-60 hours a week managing casework, intake, and hiring.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Turns referrals into a system — Google Ads, LSA, and local SEO so new matters stop depending on chance.
- Fixes live credibility gaps — corrects the Avvo NAP error and replaces the Lorem Ipsum testimonials.
- Reaches the markets he's actually targeting — geo-content for Midland, Dallas, and Houston.

Full Service Marketing — Starter | $4,997/mo bundled

- Multiple practice areas (litigation + oil & gas) disqualify Essentials — Starter is the correct tier.
- Starter's $20,000/mo ad cap easily covers the recommended $3,000-$12,000/mo range.
- No vendor conflict — the $250/mo SEO vendor is minor; the $10K/mo agency proposal is unsigned.
- Stand-alone price is $5,697/mo — bundled saves $700/mo.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for him:

- Turns reactive hiring into a plan via weekly sessions and masterminds.
- Connects him with law firm owners navigating this exact growth stage.
- Builds the systems layer under him, freeing hours spent on ad hoc ops decisions.

Elite Coach Plus | $3,200/mo bundled

- Revenue band $400K-$1M matches Elite Coach Plus exactly, per the standard tier table.
- Team of 6 is well under the 5-person Master's Circle threshold — correct fit, not an upsell.
- Stand-alone price is $3,497/mo — bundled saves $297/mo.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Replaces a single 4-6 lead/mo cold-lead proposal with an SMB-managed channel mix across Google, LSA, and Meta.
- Gives Reagan a measurable, scalable lever to hit his $650K-$750K goal this year.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $3,000/mo — minimum viable spend to start a measurable paid channel.
- Aggressive: $12,000/mo — within the Starter tier's $20,000/mo cap.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: ~3 cases x $5K est. case value = ~$15K/mo vs. $3K spend = ~5.0x return.
- Aggressive: ~17 cases x $5K est. case value = ~$85K/mo vs. $12K spend = ~7.1x return.

All figures are estimates. Not guaranteed.

How the range was calculated:

- No litigation/energy CPL row exists — using Business Law proxy: Google Search $110 (+20% cushion cons.) to blended $105 (aggr.).
- Aggressive total ($8,197 mgmt + $12,000 ads = $20,197/mo) is ~48% of current revenue, ~32-37% of the $650K-$750K goal — flag on the call.

If He Pushes Back

"I'm already evaluating a $10K/mo agency proposal — why do I need this too?"

That proposal targets just 4-6 cold leads/month at a 10-15% close rate — ~1 client/month. Starter adds LSA, local SEO, and site/credibility fixes it won't touch, at half the spend cap.

"Referrals have worked fine so far — why change now?"

Referrals built $500K, but also a 0-6 matter swing every month. His 3-5 attorney, $2-3M goal needs a predictable pipeline referrals alone can't provide.

"Can I afford $8,197/mo on top of ad spend right now?"

At conservative $3,000/mo ad spend, total is $11,197/mo — ~27% of current revenue, under the 35% cap, and targets this year's own $650K-$750K goal.
