

The Eichholz Law Firm

Sales Companion | June 19, 2026 | Rep: Michael Kopp

Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
David Eichholz	$5.2M/yr	3+ staff	Stage 4	15% (est.)	Savannah, GA

Dominant Buying Motive: VINDICATION & DOMINATION

David wants to prove the growth path was right and restore the firm to its $13M peak — with someone who believes that is achievable.

"The firm is unprofitable — projecting a -$130k net loss on $5.2M revenue."

"A healthy PI firm should target 23-31% net profit. David's firm has never achieved this."

What he wants:

- Return to $13M. His stated goal — not incremental recovery, full market dominance.
- Prove the vision was right. The decline is personal; he needs a partner who believes growth, not contraction.
- Handle the 2027 balloon from strength. $2.1M due end of 2027 — needs a growing pipeline now.

What is stopping him:

- Unprofitable cost structure. Payroll rose from 25% to 42% of revenue as the firm contracted.
- Advertising paused. Casino (1,057 reviews) and Hostilo (628 reviews) are buying every PI keyword while Eichholz is absent.
- COO-owner stalemate. No governance framework — every decision requires David personally.
- Pipeline gap risk. Cutting ads now means 2027 revenue arrives at its thinnest when the balloon is due.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Puts Eichholz back in the Savannah PI auction — where it historically dominated — while Casino and Hostilo are actively buying.
- Builds the case pipeline through 2026 so the 2027 balloon arrives with growing revenue, not a depleted docket.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Re-enters the Google Ads auction immediately — where the firm was the dominant buyer at $80-$90 CPC before the pullback.
- Generates measurable, tracked leads so ROI is visible at the case level — unlike the prior $3.5M in untracked TV/radio spend.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $10,000/mo — Google Ads $6K + LSA $3K + Meta retargeting $1K.
- Aggressive: $40,000/mo — full Platinum tier capacity across Savannah + Atlanta markets.

Estimated ROI (estimates only — not guaranteed):

- Conservative: ~12 cases x $15,000 avg = ~$180,000/mo from $10,000 spend = ~18x return.
- Aggressive: ~56 cases x $15,000 avg = ~$840,000/mo from $40,000 spend = ~21x return.

Case value $15K is conservative floor. Firm documents $100K-$400K settlements. 15% close rate (default). Results vary.

- Total aggressive SMB spend: $19,197 + $40,000 = $59,197/mo = 13.7% of revenue. Under 35% cap.

If He Pushes Back

"We are losing money — adding $19K/mo makes it worse."

The prior spend ($3.5M-$4.5M/yr) was untracked TV and radio with no case-level ROI. SMB Team at $15,997/mo is managed and measured — every dollar tied to CPL and case value data. The problem was not advertising; it was unmanaged advertising with a broken cost structure.

"The COO wants to cut back, not grow — I cannot get alignment."

The Elite Coach Plus coaching relationship is specifically designed to resolve leadership alignment. Starting coaching now — not after the stalemate self-resolves — gives David an external framework to make the growth decision with accountability behind it.

"Can we start smaller and scale up later?"

With a 2027 balloon approaching and Casino actively buying every PI keyword in Savannah, a conservative start risks arriving at the deadline with a thin pipeline. Platinum is the minimum tier for a $5.2M PI firm pursuing market recovery — starting below it concedes the market while getting up to speed.
