Dominant Buying Motive: FREEDOM & LEGACY

Joseph wants a self-managing firm that gives him real freedom and carries the Gaydos name forward.

"I'll be working until I'm dead."

"waning over time"

"make a bunch more money"

What he wants:

- Real freedom. To stop being the person the firm runs through every day.
- A firm, not a job. Something that runs and earns without him driving it daily.
- Family legacy. His father was a longtime local congressman — the name carries real weight locally.
- Succession option. His daughter is considering law and could be a future successor.

What is stopping him:

- A fading referral flywheel. His namesake referral flow is waning and is still the only real lead source.
- No scalable lead gen. Ads are paused; no consistent SEO presence outside personal injury.
- No lead tracking. Referrals and inquiries are not tracked anywhere.
- No formal leadership. A 30-year office manager delegates informally, but Joseph is still central.
- No financial visibility. No margin or cost-of-acquisition tracking; revenue is plateaued.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Replaces a fading referral flywheel with a tracked, managed search and SEO system.
- Closes the estate planning/probate visibility gap in a practice area he already wins casework in.
- Gives him a channel that does not depend on the family name holding up forever.

Full Service Marketing — Starter | $4,997/mo bundled ($5,697/mo retail)

- Seller-directed override (9/21/26, Carolyn Webb, after her in-person meeting with the client) upgraded from the single, stand-alone Essentials package ($3,797/mo) to Starter, bundled with Elite Coach.
- Ads scoped narrowly to LSA for Family Law and Probate only — not a full multi-practice buildout.
- Starter tier ad spend cap is $25,000/mo — comfortably covers the client's requested ramp target.

Elite Coach | $2,600/mo bundled ($3,497/mo retail)

- Added per the same 9/21/26 override to pair the new lead flow with a structured coaching cadence — formalizing leadership and financial visibility.
- Elite Coach's standard eligibility band is $250K-$400K revenue, which does not match this firm's revenue profile — this is a deliberate seller override, not a standard tier match. See section_11_workings.txt.
- Bundled total: $7,597/mo ($1,597/mo in combined bundling savings vs. buying each stand-alone).

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Tests paid visibility again in a lower-risk, measurable way after a frustrating experience with a prior vendor.
- Targets the exact gap Dan found live on the call — ~225 organic visits/mo vs. 1,500–1,700+ for competitors.

Recommended Ad Spend — Phased Ramp:

- Phase 1 (Months 1–3): $3,000–$5,000/mo, LSA only, Family Law + Probate.
- Phase 2 (Month 4+): $7,500/mo total — add PPC on top of the existing LSA spend.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Phase 1 (~$4K/mo): ~3 Family Law ($5K ea.) + ~4 Probate ($20K ea.) = ~$95K vs. $4K spend = ~23.8x.
- Phase 2 (~$7.5K/mo): ~6 Family Law + ~7 Probate = ~$170K vs. $7.5K spend = ~22.7x.

Estimates use a 15% close rate default and an even 50/50 spend split between Family Law and Probate. Probate figures reflect total case value, typically realized over the life of the estate administration rather than same-month cash. Not guaranteed.

How the plan was scoped:

- Client-directed ramp: LSA-only for ~3 months, then add PPC to reach $7,500/mo — well under the Starter tier's $25,000/mo ad-spend cap.
- Both phases stay within stated capacity (20 Family Law/mo, 10–20 Probate/mo) and combined spend never exceeds 14% of revenue.

If He Pushes Back

"We tried ads before and they didn't work."

Prior spend was not tracked, so results could not be measured. This engagement tracks every dollar within 90 days.

"My referrals have carried us for 35 years — why change now?"

He said the referral flow is waning. Pribanic & Pribanic (same street) and TopDog Law already have stronger digital visibility — the gap is widening.

"Why only Family Law and Probate, and why start so small?"

Probate is a high-value, high-volume practice with almost no digital visibility today; Family Law is close behind. Starting small on LSA proves the channel before scaling to PPC in month 3.

"What about the AI/automation interest I mentioned?"

That remains a future roadmap item — AI staff for repeatable admin work — once this marketing engagement is up and running.
