Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Ron Weksler	~$500K/yr, goal unstated	Ron + wife + PT helper	Stage 3	Not stated (15% default)	Hollywood, FL

Dominant Buying Motive: TIME FREEDOM

Ron wants to keep traveling roughly half the year without being tethered to his phone, and build a firm that can close new clients without him being personally reachable across time zones.

"I would rather work less and get paid more."

"I travel like half the year... Asia time difference is difficult."

"Converting leads into clients normally isn't a problem."

What he wants:

- Work less and get paid more. His own words on the call.
- Keep traveling roughly half the year. Without the business stalling while he's away.
- A team that can close clients without him. Not just answer the phone.
- Turn his reputation into real growth. Instead of relying only on referrals.

What is stopping him:

- Zero paid lead generation. No LSA, PPC, or Meta ads have ever run.
- No delegate can close a client. Every consultation goes through Ron personally.
- Time zone conflicts while traveling. The Asia time difference delays same-day responses.
- No financial visibility. No net revenue or fee structure tracked separately from gross.
- 2023 history. Passed on SMB Team before, citing price and video requirements — worth naming up front.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Turns his reputation (5.0/5.0 across 79 Avvo reviews) into paid visibility competitors don't have yet.
- Delivers the full website rebuild he already told Dan he wants.

Full Service Marketing — Starter | $4,997/mo bundled

- Two practice areas (estate planning + timeshare law) rule out Essentials — Starter is the correct entry tier.
- Includes the full website rebuild Ron already raised on the call.
- $4,997/mo fits well under the firm's ~$14,583/mo cap (35% of $500K revenue).
- Matches the transcript's stated need: LSA, local SEO, and a modern site — not a video product.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for him:

- Builds the delegation habit he's never needed — years of running everything himself.
- Turns his directional revenue goal into an actual profit plan.

Elite Coach Plus | $3,200/mo bundled

- $500K revenue puts him in the $400K–$1M Elite Coach Plus band.
- No dedicated ops/marketing staff and a small team rule out FCOO bundles for Phase 1.
- Total Phase 1 investment ($8,197/mo) stays comfortably under the 35% cap.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Shows what's achievable once his existing reputation has a paid channel behind it.
- Keeps AI/automation (Legal AI Workforce) on the Phase 3 roadmap without overcommitting spend now.

Recommended Ad Spend Range (Phase 1):

- Conservative: $5,500/mo — Google PPC + LSA channel minimums for estate planning.
- Aggressive: $16,670/mo — 20% rule against a default $1M goal; well under the Starter tier's $25,000 cap.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: ~6 cases x $2.25K = ~$13.5K/mo vs. $5.5K spend = 2.5x return.
- Aggressive: ~23 cases x $2.25K = ~$51.75K/mo vs. $16.67K spend = 3.1x return.

All figures are estimates using default case-value and close-rate benchmarks (not stated on the call). Not guaranteed.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Estate planning minimums: PPC $3,500 + LSA $2,000 = $5,500.
- Aggressive: No stated goal defaulted to 2x revenue ($1M) x 20% / 12 x Tier 2 (1.3x) = $21,667, minus $4,997 fee = $16,670.
- Reverse math against the $1M goal implies ~$27,000/mo needed — exceeds the Starter cap; flag for a Growth-tier upgrade once revenue clears $1M (Phase 4).
- Aggressive spend + Phase 1 fees would be ~59.7% of revenue — not part of the Phase 1 ask, future planning figure only.

If He Pushes Back

"I already passed on SMB Team once before, in 2023."

Pricing and video requirements were the objections then. This proposal has no video product, and Starter is the lowest tier that fits a two-practice-area firm.

"I already pay for an answering service — why do I need this too?"

The $1,000/mo Inside Out service only screens calls — it doesn't close a client or run paid ads. This adds the piece that's actually missing: a paid lead engine and a delegation plan.

"What about the AI/automation work we actually wanted to talk about?"

It's on the roadmap in Phase 3 (Legal AI Workforce) once marketing and coaching are established — adding it now would push total spend past the firm's 35% cap.
