Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Linda "Lin" Ratcliffe	~$260K/yr	Solo + 2 support	3	Not stated	Bend, OR

Dominant Buying Motive: FREEDOM

Lin wants a predictable, self-managing firm so she is no longer the single point of failure.

Source is a Fathom AI summary, not a verbatim transcript. DBM is inferred, not quoted. Signals below are paraphrased, not her exact words.

- Handles legal and low-value admin work herself, including about an hour a day on Word templates.
- Misses about a dozen calls a month; paralegal callback process is inefficient.
- 12-month goal is systems, SOPs, KPIs, intake, and billing before hiring.

What she wants:

- A firm that runs without her. A predictable, self-managing practice she can delegate to.
- Foundation first. Systems, SOPs, and KPIs in place before she hires.
- Her time back. Stop spending the day on low-value administrative work.
- A bigger firm later. In 3-6 years: 3-4 attorneys, more office space, take-home above $200K a year.

What is stopping her:

- She is the bottleneck. One attorney, one paralegal, and a virtual receptionist service.
- Leaky intake. About a dozen missed calls a month and a slow callback hand-off.
- Hiring fear. Past staff experiences make her gun-shy about hiring.
- Thin online presence. Two-page site; firm name did not surface in nine Bend searches.
- Reputation risk. Public reviews mention unreturned calls and deadlines. Do not quote them to her.

Why No Marketing Package (Seller Override)

What this does for her:

- Fixes intake and systems first, so any future marketing spend turns into signed clients.
- Keeps the first investment on the foundation she asked for.
- Call was an ops and coaching conversation, not a lead-gen one.
- Starter ($4,997/mo bundled) was dropped per the September 30, 2026 Slack request.
- Marketing becomes a Phase 2 add once the firm passes $500K and intake can handle volume.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for her:

- Gives her a proven playbook for intake and follow-up instead of building it alone.
- Helps her document and hand off the work that does not need an attorney.
- Prepares her to hire from written roles and SOPs, not from scratch.

Elite Coach | $3,497/mo (flat stand-alone price)

- $260K revenue sits in the $250K-$400K band, where Elite Coach is the table default.
- The $2,600 bundled price only applies with a bundle partner, so no savings apply here.
- $3,497 x 12 = $41,964, or 16.1% of revenue. Well under the 35% cap.
- Revenue is under $300K, so scoping approval is required.

What We Left Out and Why

- Ad spend: none. No marketing package is recommended, so Block 4 and ROI projections are omitted.
- Fractional Business Officer: discussed on the call, but FCOO is hidden under $500K revenue.
- SOP Builder AI tool: no Legal AI Workforce tier was selected. Confirm LAW has launched before adding AI Workforce Pro - Starter ($350/user/mo).
- Attorney Assistant: mentioned only as a possible third-party stopgap, not an SMB Team service.

Verify Before the Call

- Review counts and ratings are unconfirmed (aggregator-sourced). The report uses qualitative wording only.
- PageSpeed scores were not obtained (API quota). Ad, LSA, and Meta presence could not be observed.
- Local 3-pack results are an organic proxy, not a rendered map pack.

If She Pushes Back

"I cannot spend $3,497 a month on a $260K practice."

It is 16.1% of revenue, under the 35% cap. The summary cites an estimated $396K a year lost to missed calls and intake. That figure is unverified, so use it as a talking point only, never as an audited number. If budget is a real limit, Coach Essentials Plus ($1,997/mo) is the lower-cost option.

"I am gun-shy about hiring."

That is why coaching comes first. The plan builds SOPs, KPIs, and a hiring blueprint before any new hire, which is the order she already told us she wants.

"We talked about a Fractional Business Officer. Where is it?"

FCOO opens at $500K in revenue, and she is at about $260K. Elite Coach starts the systems work now, and FCOO is the Phase 2 step once she reaches that milestone.

"Why not fix my website and get more leads first?"

A dozen calls a month are already being missed. More leads into a leaky intake process just means more missed calls. Fix the process, then add marketing in Phase 2.
