Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Rahim Dhanani	~$150K-$200K/yr	Solo (1)	Stage 3	15% (default)	Atlanta, GA

Dominant Buying Motive: FREEDOM / SELLABLE FIRM

Rahim wants a systematized firm that runs without him, so he can work on the business as CEO — not just survive as its only attorney.

"Build a systematized, sellable firm that runs without his constant presence, enabling him to work on the business as a true CEO."

"Gain personal freedom, reduce stress, and build a lasting legacy by helping clients start new lives."

"Open to SMB Team's $2,500/mo minimum package (12-month commitment)."

What he wants:

- Step back from the day-to-day so the firm runs without his constant presence.
- Break the chicken-and-egg cycle — a system to hire and delegate, not just more leads.
- Build something sellable, not just a practice tied to his own involvement.
- Hit $500K gross / $250K net, stretch target $1.2M+ within the year.

What is stopping him:

- Sole bottleneck. Every case and intake call runs through him personally.
- Past freelance hires failed on quality — hesitant to try again.
- No consistent lead channel. Referral-only; a past PPC campaign failed.
- No financial visibility beyond top-line revenue.
- Under $250K revenue — confirm he can cover 4 months of service before signing.

Why No Marketing Package in Phase 1

What this protects for him:

- Prevents pushing lead volume at a solo attorney with no team to handle it.
- Keeps monthly investment inside the 35% of revenue cap, instead of overshooting before ad spend starts.

Scoping rationale — departure from the revenue-based recommendation:

- 35% cap at ~$15K/mo revenue is ~$5,250/mo. Starter + Elite Coach bundled = $7,597/mo, over by $2,300+ before ad spend.
- Essentials tier unavailable — multiple practice areas (family + business immigration) require single-practice-area Essentials.
- Rahim's $2,500/mo comfort level assumed a bundle partner. Sold alone, Elite Coach is $3,497/mo — flag this gap for Jacob.
- Marketing deferred to Phase 2 — documented as intentional, not an oversight.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for him:

- Gives him a real hiring/training/delegation system, not a repeat of the failed freelance hire.
- Builds the team capacity that must exist before more leads would help him.

Elite Coach | $3,497/mo

- Stand-alone rate. Bundled $2,600/mo only applies with a second package — see objection below.
- Includes weekly coaching, masterminds, quarterly workshops, one annual in-person workshop.
- Sole Phase 1 recommendation — fits the call's explicit coaching/systems focus.

Why This Ad Spend (Phase 2 Target, Not Phase 1)

What it does for him:

- Turns the $500K-$1.2M revenue goal into a concrete media plan once the team is ready.
- Fixes the past PPC failure right this time, with a landing page and real keyword targeting.

Recommended Ad Spend Range (Phase 2):

- Conservative: $3,000/mo — Google Search only, Immigration category minimum.
- Aggressive: $12,000/mo — 20% rule on the $500K goal, Tier 1 Atlanta multiplier.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: ~3-4 cases x $4.5K avg = ~$13.5K-$18K/mo vs. $3K spend = ~5-6x return.
- Aggressive: ~24-25 cases x $4.5K avg = ~$108K-$112.5K/mo vs. $12K spend = ~9x return.

Estimates use the Immigration default case value ($3K-$6K). Not guaranteed.

If He Pushes Back

"I thought we were going to start running ads right away."

More leads without a team just recreates the bottleneck you described. Elite Coach builds the team first — marketing launches in Phase 2.

"You said $2,500 a month — this is $3,497."

$2,500 assumed a bundle with marketing. Sold alone in Phase 1, Elite Coach is priced at its standard $3,497/mo rate. Bundling returns in Phase 2.

"Why not just do the $4,997/mo Starter marketing package now?"

At your revenue, Starter alone is already ~33% of monthly revenue — no room left for ad spend under the 35% cap.

"What about the AI Workforce Pro tool we talked about?"

A great fit down the road — it needs $500K+ revenue and 1-2 support staff. Elite Coach gets you there; revisit in Phase 3.
