Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Carlos Parés	Not stated on call (HubSpot: $0–$180K)	2–3	3	Not stated (15% default)	Orlando, FL + Puerto Rico

Dominant Buying Motive: FREEDOM

Carlos wants to double his caseload without losing his relaxed, low-stress life.

> "I enjoy my relaxness."

> "Instead of having five, maybe I can go to 10, 20, but never sacrificing my mental health."

> "I'm the product. So I'm selling myself."

What he wants:

- A landing page and e-book. A page in his brand colors that sells the e-book and books paid consults.
- AI inside the firm. Automate intake and onboarding on one secure platform.
- More cases, same pace. Four or five a month today, maybe 10 or 20.
- One clear decision. Pick the path once and avoid a data mess.

What is stopping him:

- No owned destination. TV and social bring leads, but there is no landing page or e-book funnel.
- Manual intake. Intake and onboarding are hands-on for a team of two or three.
- Informal AI use. Personal Claude and ChatGPT in the office, no single platform.
- Doubts about Google. He said he does not need SEO or Ads and fears fake reviews.
- Price-sensitive. He is a "numbered person" and wants a "very starter package."

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Gives his TV and social attention a landing page that books paid consults.
- Puts Spanish-language paid social behind the e-book without more of his time.
- Monthly reporting shows cost per consult so he can set the pace.

Full Service Marketing Essentials | $3,797/mo (stand-alone price)

- Seller override (Slack, 11/4). Rules would give Starter: 2 locations, several practice areas.
- Revenue is unverified. Under $250K: confirm 4 months of funds. Under $300K: scoping approval.
- He wants a "very starter package" and no Google, so lead with the landing page and Meta.
- Only one bundle-eligible product, so no bundle discount applies.

Why This AI Workforce Package

What it does for him:

- Replaces ad hoc ChatGPT and Claude use with one managed AI workspace.
- Starts with intake and onboarding, the first thing he wants automated.
- A weekly session keeps the rollout moving without him leading it.

AI Workforce Pro – Starter (1 user) | $350/mo

- Seats unconfirmed. Daniel quoted $350/seat and gave 3 seats as an example. Priced at 1.
- Starter covers 1–4 users; 5+ users moves to AI Workforce Pro at $1,597/mo. Month-to-month.
- Confirm LAW delivery has launched and has capacity before sending.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Gives his e-book and consult page paid reach in the Spanish-speaking audience he serves.
- Sets a tested cost per consult before he commits to a bigger budget.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $3,000/mo — the minimum for paid ads, on one Meta channel.
- Aggressive: $6,500/mo — 20% rule, under the $7,500 Essentials cap.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: ~5 cases x $4.5K = ~$22.5K/mo vs. $3K spend = 7.5x return.
- Aggressive: ~14 cases x $4.5K = ~$63K/mo vs. $6.5K spend = 9.7x return.

All figures are estimates. Not guaranteed. Case value ($4.5K, midpoint of the $3K–$6K immigration default) and 15% close rate were not confirmed on the call.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Immigration minimums are Google $3,000, Meta lead gen $3,000, LSA $2,000. One Meta channel at $3,000; cold CPL $75 + 20% cushion = $90, about 33 leads.
- Aggressive: $360K target (2x revenue, no goal stated) x 20% ÷ 12 = $6,000. Tier 2 Orlando (1.3x) = $7,800. Spanish x1.33 = $10,374. Minus $3,797 fee = $6,577, shown as $6,500. Reverse math gave about $3,100, so the 20% rule governs.
- The decision file's $12,000 aggressive figure broke the $7,500 cap, so it was recomputed.
- Cap check: total at conservative is $7,147/mo (47.6% of revenue). At aggressive it is $10,647/mo (71.0%). Both are over the 35% cap of $5,250 on $180K. Review with the rep.

If He Pushes Back

"I don't need Google SEO or Ads."
Agree. His leads come from TV and social, so lead with the landing page and Meta. Google stays optional.

"Competitors go to your Google reviews and start putting fake comments." [0:23:50]
Do not pitch review growth. Offer clean, consistent business details instead, since his name and address vary across sources.

"I'm a numbered person at end of the day." [0:18:33]
Fees are $4,147/mo: $3,797 marketing plus $350 AI. Confirm revenue first, because fees are about 28% of $180K a year. Anchor on cost per booked consult.

"I want to make sure this is the pathway to go." [0:11:03]
He is open to Microsoft Copilot. Start with 1 seat, month-to-month, one platform, and a weekly session. Do not promise outcomes.
