Dominant Buying Motive: DOMINANCE

Murat and Ryan want a premium, high-end brand that dominates their local market, hitting $800/hr partner profitability by shifting toward high-margin work.

"Target $800/hr for partners by focusing on high-margin work like clerk's hearings ($4k fee for 2 hrs work = $2k/hr)."

"a landmark OUI case (which entitled 27k people to new trials)"

"canned, robotic, and insulting"

What he wants:

- Premium, high-end brand. Be the firm judges and premium clients associate with serious criminal defense.
- $800/hr partner profitability. Shift case mix toward high-margin work like clerk's hearings.
- Scale with a new hire. Add 25–30 cases/month and bring on an associate to absorb it.

What is stopping him:

- Underperforming SEO vendor. Blue Shark produces 212 visitors/mo vs. competitors' 1,300–1,900.
- Zero paid channels. No PPC, LSA, or Meta ads have ever been run.
- Content the client calls insulting. Site copy doesn't reflect the firm's actual caliber.
- No case-mix or profit tracking. Nothing connects case type to the $800/hr target.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Puts the firm's brand and landmark case in front of the premium clients it deserves.
- Turns the zero-paid-channel gap into immediate, visible lead flow via PPC and retargeting.

Full Service Marketing — Starter | $4,997/mo bundled

- Revenue ~$750K (HubSpot-sourced, not stated on the call) falls in the $500K–$1M Starter tier band.
- Multiple practice areas (OUI/DUI + general criminal defense) independently qualify for Starter.
- Blue Shark is being fully replaced, not supplemented — client wants a full-service replacement.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for him:

- Turns "$800/hr" from an aspiration into a plan, with guidance on case-mix and hiring.
- Builds the case-routing plan for the new associate hire before it becomes another undifferentiated biller.

Elite Coach Plus | $3,200/mo bundled

- Revenue ~$750K falls in the $400K–$1M Elite Coach Plus band.
- No ops-crisis or profit-visibility problem was flagged — partners already show above-average financial sophistication, so FCOO/FCFO add-ons aren't warranted yet.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Converts the firm's dormant SEO-only lead flow into an active, multi-channel pipeline that can support the stated 25–30 cases/month growth goal.
- Lets the firm test paid channels for the first time with real conversion data instead of guessing.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $6,700/mo — minimum viable spend across recommended channels (Google PPC + Meta Retargeting).
- Aggressive: $13,600/mo — capped by the 35% total-spend rule at this revenue level, not the Starter tier's $20,000 ad spend ceiling.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: 5 cases x $15K = $79K/mo vs. $6.7K spend = 11.9x return.
- Aggressive: 13 cases x $15K = $195K/mo vs. $13.6K spend = 14.3x return.

All figures are estimates. Not guaranteed.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Criminal Defense minimums: Google PPC $5,500 + Meta Retargeting $1,200 = $6,700.
- Aggressive: Revenue ~$750K/yr = $62.5K/mo. 35% cap = $21.9K. Minus $8.2K mgmt fees = $13.6K max ad spend — more restrictive than the $20K Starter tier cap.
- Total spend at aggressive: $21.8K/mo = 34.9% of revenue. Under the 35% cap.

If He Pushes Back

"Blue Shark already does our SEO — why replace them entirely?"

Blue Shark is SEO-only and producing 212 visitors/mo vs. Neyman's 1,900 — a 6–9x gap. The client's own words for the content: "canned," "robotic," "insulting." This is a replacement the client already signaled on the call.

"We've never run paid ads — how do we know this will work?"

That's why the conservative scenario starts small ($6,700/mo). With a 5.0-star, 154-review profile, this firm enters the auction stronger than most competitors from day one.
