Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Nahla Kamaluddin	~$1.2M (transcript)	Solo, no delegation	3 — Solo	15% (default)	Smyrna, GA

Dominant Buying Motive: LEGACY

Nahla wants to build a legacy firm with a trained team of attorneys and step into a true CEO role — leading and training instead of personally running every case.

"Primary Goal: Build a legacy firm with a larger team of attorneys, moving Nahla into a CEO role focused on leadership and training."

"despite powerful results (e.g., green cards)"

What she wants:

- Build a legacy firm. A larger team of attorneys under her leadership.
- Step into a true CEO role. Lead and train, not negotiate every fee.
- Scale past personal capacity. Referrals alone can't support her team goal.

What is stopping her:

- Zero organic visibility. Doesn't surface in any of six local searches.
- No delegation exists. Every case evaluation runs through her alone.
- A blocked GBP listing. A verification issue blocks her own listing access.
- No paid marketing running. Referrals carry the entire client flow.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for her:

- Gives her a predictable, referral-independent flow of new clients.
- Builds the local presence a legacy firm needs before she can lead.

Full Service Marketing — Growth | $7,497/mo bundled

- Revenue is just under $1.2M — the $1M–$2M Growth band (corrected up from the pipeline's low-confidence $570K estimate; see workings file).
- Multiple practice areas (immigration + PI) independently rule out Essentials.
- $50,000/mo ad spend cap comfortably covers the recommended range.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for her:

- Gives her a structured system to build her delegation and hiring plan.
- Provides accountability so "build a team" becomes an actual plan.

Elite Coach Plus | $3,200/mo bundled

- Revenue is $1M+ and the team is effectively solo — the "$1M+, Under 5" row.
- No dedicated ops/marketing/intake staff yet — Master's Circle/FCOO not eligible.
- Bundled with marketing, total stays well under the 35%-of-revenue cap.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for her:

- Turns her existing reputation into an active lead-generation channel.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $8,000/mo — channel minimums for immigration (PPC, LSA, Meta).
- Aggressive: $24,000/mo — scaled to the 35%-of-revenue cap (full 20%-rule figure ~$52.5K isn't affordable yet; revisit as revenue grows).

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: 13 cases x $4.5K = $56.8K/mo vs. $8K spend = 7.1x return.
- Aggressive: 46 cases x $4.5K = $207K/mo vs. $24K spend = 8.6x return.

All figures are estimates based on industry averages. Not guaranteed.

How the range was calculated:

- Aggressive: $2.4M goal x 20% ÷ 12 = $40,000. Atlanta Tier 1 (1.5x) = $60,000. Minus $7,497 fee = $52,503 — capped to $24,000/mo.
- Total spend at aggressive: $34,697/mo = 34.7% of revenue. Under the 35% cap.

If She Pushes Back

"That's a lot to spend when I'm already busy handling cases."

Her own capacity is the ceiling today — the bundle removes that ceiling and saves $1,797/month vs. buying stand-alone.

"I don't know if ads will even work for immigration law."

She isn't starting from zero — her review profile already compares favorably to every named competitor (Weinstock, Hammers, and others).

"We haven't even fixed our Google listing yet."

That's exactly why GBP correction and NAP cleanup are the first Phase 1 items — fixed the same 90 days ads launch.
