Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Michelle and Charles Chase	Not stated (pre-revenue per seller)	2	3	82% (referrals)	Remote (Portugal); FL license

Dominant Buying Motive: CONTROL

Charles wants to learn marketing and own it, so the firm can become Florida's top workers' comp firm without an agency running it.

"Charles to learn marketing to run the business, not just work in it."

"CIL must own all created marketing assets"

Quotes are Fathom call-summary wording, not a verbatim transcript.

What they want:

- 8-10 new cases a month. That is the path to 75-100 cases and their first associate.
- Marketing they understand. Charles wants the skill in-house, not a black box.
- Transparency. Ad spend paid straight to the platforms, with a management fee only.
- Every lead answered. Intake is the number one success factor to them.

What is stopping them:

- Slow website. Mobile 29/100 and a 19-second load may explain 6 clicks and 0 calls.
- Intake gap. Coverage is 5 AM-7 PM ET and no after-hours option is chosen yet.
- Trust. Online reviews of SMB Team mention upsells and hard contract exits.
- Unproven channels. PPC is one week old; a past Meta test cost about $1.2K for 1 lead.
- Mentorship need. Charles wants more hands-on help than the standard 1 hr a month.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for them:

- Turns Google, LSA, YouTube, and ChatGPT into a measured lead channel aimed at 8-10 cases a month.
- Gives Charles monthly numbers by channel, so he learns marketing from real results.
- Keeps cost simple: one flat management fee, with ad spend going to the platforms.

Paid Ads Starter | $2,497/mo bundled

- Seller override on Oct 9 replaced Full Service Marketing with Paid Ads Starter ($20,000 ad cap).
- Ads-only normally needs a paired coaching package and a good website. Neither applies here.
- Meta is excluded at the client's request. YouTube and ChatGPT visibility are included.
- No outside vendor was stated. Ask who manages the current one-week PPC campaign.

Why No Coaching Package (Yet)

What it keeps simple:

- One focused ask for a firm that has not yet seen paid results.
- A clear next step: add operations and coaching once cases are flowing.

Roadmap talking points (no coaching quoted today) | $0/mo

- Seller dropped Elite Coach on Oct 9. Do not add it back unprompted.
- The call said SMB Team would assess deeper mentorship. Do not promise it.
- Phase 2: FCOO Advisor at 75-100 cases (needs $500K+ revenue). No price quoted.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for them:

- Puts the firm in front of injured workers in Google and LSA searches across Florida.
- Sizes spend to the 8–10 cases a month the firm wants, not to current revenue.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $8,000/mo, set by the seller and within the $20,000 cap.
- Aggressive: $9,000/mo, set by the seller and within the $20,000 cap.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: about 7 cases x $4,375 = $31,250/mo vs. $8K spend = 3.9x return.
- Aggressive: about 9.6 cases x $4,375 = $42,200/mo vs. $9K spend = 4.7x return.

All figures are estimates. Not guaranteed. Fees arrive as cases resolve.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: $8,000 / $168 CPL ($140 + 20% cushion) = 47.6 leads x 75% qualified x 20% close = 7.1 cases.
- Aggressive: $9,000 / $140 CPL = 64.3 leads x 75% qualified x 20% close = 9.6 cases.
- CPL, qualified, and close rates are the call's assumptions. Workers' comp is not in the CPL table.
- Do not quote $840 per case from the call; it does not match this math. The 35% cap is not applied.

If They Push Back

"Online reviews mention upsells and difficult contract exits."

Point to one flat $2,497 fee and ad spend paid straight to the platforms. Walk through contract terms openly and offer the two non-local references they asked for.

"Do you work with other Florida workers' comp firms?"

Teams are siloed by firm. Do not promise exclusivity. Share the Florida workers' comp client count they asked for.

"Will Charles actually learn marketing from this?"

Monthly reporting calls show results by channel, and they own the assets. Deeper mentorship will be assessed; promise nothing beyond that.

"We got 6 clicks and no calls. Why will this work?"

One week is too small a sample. A 19-second mobile load and ad position near 25% can both cost calls. Tracking will show the real cost per case.
