Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Banks Ladd	~$800K pace (~$600K prior yr)	5-6 + contractor	Stage 4	15% (default)	Mobile, AL (1 loc.)

Dominant Buying Motive: TIME FREEDOM

Banks wants the firm to grow without it consuming more of his personal time — he still needs roughly five hours a day for production work and worries about being overloaded by new initiatives.

"~10% ad cost to revenue last month, approx $60K revenue on $6K spend"

What he wants:

- Double meetings, not hours. Grow from ~5 to 10 design meetings/week without doubling his own workload.
- One coordinated plan. Replace scattered PPC/LSA/SEO effort with a single data-driven strategy.
- A team that absorbs new initiatives. Satellite offices and new practice lines without him carrying the load.
- Real financial visibility. Move past a rough ad-cost ratio into an actual profit plan.

What is stopping him:

- No defined intake process. Meetings are capped near 5/week despite active ad spend.
- One contractor, four channels. Colin Bulger runs website, SEO, PPC, and LSA alone — a capacity ceiling.
- Prior agency churned. Empirical ended about a year ago, leaving trust in outsourced marketing shaky.
- NAP inconsistency. FindLaw still shows the old address, working against the SEO assets already built.
- Below-market case value. $4,000 average vs. ~$5,000 locally, compounding on every signed case.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Turns the $6,000/month he already spends into one coordinated plan instead of scattered channels.
- Puts the firm's 165-209 review advantage and 20+ geo-pages to work instead of sitting unused.
- Removes the need for Banks to personally verify that marketing is working.

Full Service Marketing — Starter | $4,847/mo bundled

- Revenue pace of ~$800K places the firm in the $400K-$1M tier — Starter is the eligible entry tier.
- Current combined PPC+LSA spend (~$6,000/mo) sits well under the Starter tier's $25,000 ad spend cap.
- 20+ existing geo-pages plus a churned prior agency mean the firm needs Full Service coordination, not an ads-only package.
- NAP inconsistency (FindLaw's old address) requires directory-level cleanup included in Full Service.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for him:

- Gives Banks a structured way to delegate intake and follow-up instead of personally overseeing it.
- Builds team accountability around Summer, Leo, and the growing attorney bench.
- Turns a rough ad-cost-to-revenue ratio into an actual profit plan.

Elite Coach Plus | $3,200/mo bundled

- Revenue in the $400K-$1M band places Elite Coach Plus as the standard non-marketing recommendation.
- No profit problems severe enough to warrant an added Fractional CFO/COO Advisor were stated on the call.
- Revenue is under $1M, so Master's Circle and FCOO/FCFO bundles are ineligible regardless of team size.
- Existing delegation moves (probate hire, ops/marketing liaisons) give coaching a foundation to build accountability on.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Converts the existing $6,000/month spend into a documented, ROI-tracked investment instead of a rough ratio.
- Gives Banks room to scale toward his 10-meetings-a-week goal without increasing his own involvement.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $3,500/mo — Estate Planning Google PPC channel floor.
- Aggressive: $14,000/mo — sized to the firm's ~$1.6M revenue goal under the 35% total-spend cap.

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: ~26 leads x 15% close = ~4 cases x $4K = ~$16K/mo vs. $3.5K spend = ~4.6x return.
- Aggressive: ~127 leads x 15% close = ~19 cases x $4K = ~$76K/mo vs. $14K spend = ~5.5x return.

All figures are estimates. Not guaranteed.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Estate Planning Google PPC minimum: $3,500 (absolute floor for any paid ads is $3,000/mo).
- Aggressive: $1.6M goal x 20% / 12 = $26,667; capped down to $14,000 to stay under the 35% total-spend cap.
- Total spend at aggressive: $8,047 mgmt + $14,000 ads = $22,047/mo = 33.1% of $66,667/mo revenue — under the 35% cap.

If He Pushes Back

"We already tried an agency and it didn't work out."

Empirical wasn't running a coordinated plan across channels. Starter bundles PPC, LSA, and SEO under one accountable system, with monthly reporting tied to design meetings booked — not just clicks.

"Won't full-service marketing overlap with Colin, our current contractor?"

Starter coordinates strategy and reporting across PPC, LSA, and SEO rather than replacing Colin outright — a phased or a-la-carte scope can start narrow and expand once Banks sees the coordinated plan working.

"I want to sleep on it before signing anything."

Reasonable — the numbers here are estimates Banks can verify against his own ad account and GBP data before committing. Nothing about this recommendation requires a same-day decision.
