Kinect Law (Law Offices of Albert Wai-Kit Chan, PLLC)

Sales Companion | October 27, 2026 | Rep: Jacob Meissner

Prospect Snapshot

Owner	Revenue	Team	Stage	Close Rate	Location
Robert D. Katz (partner contact)	Not stated ($961K–$3M, HubSpot)	4 partners	Stage 3	Not stated (15% default)	Whitestone, NY

Dominant Buying Motive: SECURITY

A predictable pipeline of high-value B2B clients so revenue stabilizes and the firm stops depending on referrals (inferred, not stated).

> "Fathom summary: The firm needs a predictable pipeline of high-value B2B clients (e.g., litigation, startups) to stabilize revenue."

> "Fathom summary: Kinect Law's lead generation is inconsistent, relying on word-of-mouth."

> "Fathom summary: Desired clients are high-value B2B work, not low-fee Amazon filings."

What they want:

- Predictable pipeline. New matters should not hinge on who refers the firm next.
- The right clients. Biotech and pharma startups, trademark-heavy brands, and IP litigation.
- Wider reach. Visibility in Manhattan, Westchester, Nassau, and Brooklyn, not just Whitestone.
- Stable cash flow. Steadier revenue despite slow-paying clients.

What is stopping them:

- No marketing budget. A $5-6K/mo spend is a "big nut" for the firm.
- Partner alignment. Partners must agree on the investment before committing.
- Weak online footprint. Old GBP name, no reviews or photos, no location pages.
- No financial plan. No formal budget or projections, and cash flow is tight.
- Slow SEO payoff. Results take 6-12 months.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for them:

- Makes Kinect Law findable for the IP searches their ideal B2B clients run.
- Replaces referral timing with an organic pipeline the partners control.
- Builds trust for first-time searchers with a clean profile, reviews, and local pages.

Web + SEO Growth | $5,897/mo (stand-alone rate)

- Call focus was long-term SEO and AEO: GBP cleanup, Areas We Serve pages, Q&A content.
- Seller locked Web + SEO Growth, no coaching. Rulebook prefers a coaching pair; seller choice applied.
- Sits at the top of the $5-6K/mo budget the partners discussed. No ad spend.

Coaching Package: Not Included

Why it is out for now:

- One defined line item is easier for the partners to approve than a bundle.
- Call was about marketing, not coaching or operations.

Elite Coach Plus was dropped at seller request (Slack, 10/27)

- Roadmap Phase 2 adds an FCOO Advisor ($3,297/mo) once organic inquiries are steady.
- Rep mentioned fractional CFO for profit planning; it is a Phase 3 add, not priced here.

Ad Spend: None Recommended

Why this keeps the plan simple:

- Web + SEO has no paid ads, so the partners only weigh one monthly figure.
- Rep's view on the call: Google PPC is ineffective for B2B; organic search and social build the brand better.

What was not calculated:

- Ad spend range and ROI: not projected. No paid package is in the proposal.
- If ads come up later: run channel minimums and the 20% rule with the paid ads team first.
- Missing data: revenue, case value, and close rate were not stated on the call.

No ROI figures are quoted to the prospect. Anything shared later must be labeled an estimate.

Before the call:

- Review counts: all competitor counts are unconfirmed. Verify live on Google before citing any.
- PageSpeed: 61 mobile / 94 desktop came from a local Lighthouse run. Re-run on pagespeed.web.dev.
- Not observed: 3-pack, Google Ads, LSA, and Meta data. Urgency score of 5 is provisional.

If They Push Back

"$5,897 a month is a big nut with no marketing budget."

It is one line item with no ad spend and no coaching bundle. It sits inside the $5-6K range discussed on the call. Rep offered a recap the partners can use for their firm discussion.

"How long until we see results?"

SEO takes 6-12 months, as discussed on the call. Early steps are visible sooner: a corrected GBP, review requests going out, and new location pages going live. Do not promise lead counts.

"Referrals have worked for years. Why change?"

The summary says lead flow is inconsistent. Sisun Law, De Rose & Surico, and Pollak & Slepian already appear in trademark directory results where Kinect Law does not. Do not cite review counts until verified.
