Dominant Buying Motive: STEADY, SELF-RUNNING FIRM

He wants a predictable flow of new clients and a team and systems that carry the firm. (Inferred, not stated.)

No verbatim quotes available. The transcript is a Fathom AI summary, so nothing below is a direct quote.

What he wants:

- Steady lead flow. Add 10 to 15 new clients a month to fix an inconsistent flow.
- A strong comeback. The summary says he wants to return to a "pumping" state.
- A self-managing team. Coaching was pitched as systems for owner freedom.
- A smooth handoff. A 40-plus-year firm, and Vic Bonner Jr. wants a modern case system.

What is stopping him:

- Untracked lead sources. Word-of-mouth, TV, radio, and billboards; no digital history stated.
- No formal intake. Only a JotForm, and after-hours calls go to a recorded message.
- Paper files. 40 to 50 active cases a month on paper blocks digital marketing and reviews.
- Split decision-makers. The attorney prefers paper; the chief paralegal wants a CMS.
- Small review footprint. Google count is unconfirmed (24 / ~40 / 55); competitors are far larger.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for him:

- Puts the firm in front of Houston accident victims every day, not only when a referral happens.
- Shows which channel produces signed cases and what each one costs.
- Builds the reviews and local visibility that Houston competitors already have.

Full Service Marketing — Growth | $8,997/mo (stand-alone)

- Seller override (Slack, Oct 13): Growth sold stand-alone, so there is no bundling discount.
- Call showed a real lead-gen gap and no existing marketing vendor, so marketing leads.
- Growth is above the revenue table's Starter tier for a $570K estimate; confirm revenue.
- Coaching, Fractional CTO, and AI Workforce Pro are not in this proposal.

Where Coaching and AI Fit Later

What to say if he asks:

- Lead flow comes first; ops and AI help most once new clients are coming in.
- Phase 2 adds a Fractional COO Advisor to document intake and move off paper.
- Phase 3 adds a Fractional CFO, bookkeeping, and AI Workforce Pro for handwritten notes.
- Open item: clear up Vic's existing "AI Workforce Pro subscription" (vendor unclear) before any AI pricing.
- Confirm Legal AI Workforce delivery has launched before quoting any LAW product.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for him:

- Gets the firm into high-intent Houston car and truck accident searches right away.
- Starts a measurable flow of cases that does not depend on referrals.

Recommended Ad Spend Range:

- Conservative: $10,000/mo — MVA Google search minimum.
- Aggressive: $20,000/mo — set in the locked package decision (cap for Growth is $50,000).

Estimated Return on Investment:

- Conservative: ~2 cases x $7.5K = ~$13.3K/mo vs. $10K spend = 1.3x return.
- Aggressive: ~7 cases x $7.5K = ~$51K/mo vs. $20K spend = 2.6x return.

All figures are estimates. Not guaranteed. Case value ($7.5K) and close rate (15%) are defaults; neither was stated.

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Google search $705 CPL midpoint x 1.2 cushion = $846 per lead; ~12 leads x 15% = ~2 cases.
- Aggressive: $14,000 Google + $6,000 LSA (70/30, assumed); ~45 leads x 15% = ~7 cases.
- Gap: Goal is 10 to 15 new clients/mo and the call talked ~$30K/mo; this projection is well below that. Reset expectations.
- Cap check: $8,997 fee + $10,000 ad = $18,997 = 40.0% of est. revenue (cap is 35%, $16,625). Aggressive = 61.0%. OVER CAP: review before sending.

If He Pushes Back

"We already advertise on TV, radio, and billboards."

Those channels are hard to track. Digital shows every call and form and the cost per signed case, so the next dollar goes where it works.

"Our files are on paper. We are not ready for digital."

Ads, reviews, and listings do not need paper files moved first. The move to a case system comes in Phase 2, at the pace the attorney is comfortable with.

"We have already looked at AI. Why is it not in this?"

AI works best once leads are flowing. It is in Phase 3 for handwritten notes. First, clear up the subscription Vic already has.

"We have about 40 reviews. Is that enough?"

The true Google count is unconfirmed; verify it live. Every Houston competitor we checked is far larger, so a review program is a quick win.
