John McNeil	~$720K (~30% YoY)	4 staff	Stage 4	26%	Raleigh, NC

Dominant Buying Motive: FINANCIAL CERTAINTY

John wants a predictable pipeline — so slow seasons are planned for and payroll is never a question.

"Cash flow visibility needs improvement to better plan for slow seasons."

"The firm ranks on page 2 of Google for 'family law Raleigh.'"

What John wants:

- Predictable pipeline. 6–9 months of cases booked in advance; slow seasons planned, not survived.
- Payroll certainty. Never running the mental math on whether the firm covers payroll this month.
- Path to $1.5M. Revenue recovery from $720K to and past $1M on a system that scales without adding his hours.

What is stopping him:

- Attribution gap. Runs Google PPC + LSAs in-house but cannot distinguish paid from organic — spending money he cannot measure.
- Julia's skepticism. Past negative experience with SMB Team; she is the gatekeeper and reviews the proposal before John sees it.
- Revenue decline. Down ~30% YoY; no financial projections, no budget, no cost-per-acquisition tracking in place.
- Sole attorney ceiling. John handles every matter — no paralegal, no production redundancy, no path to 30 cases/month at current capacity.

Why This Marketing Package

What it does for John:

- Replaces in-house ad guesswork with a fully attributed system — every case traced to its source, every ad dollar accountable.
- Manages LSAs + Google Ads while building reviews past 100 — improving 3-pack and LSA visibility simultaneously.

Full Service Marketing — Starter | $7,847/mo bundled

- Revenue $720K places firm in $400K–$1M Starter band per eligibility rules; Platinum/Growth hidden under $1M.
- Starter ad spend cap $5,000 fits: $11,047 packages + $5,000 = $16,047 = 26.7% of $60K/mo — under 35% cap.
- Review acquisition + GBP management included; closing gap with McIlveen (102 reviews) is first unlock for 3-pack visibility.

Why This Coaching Package

What it does for John:

- Provides accountability framework to hold the firm to its $1.5M goal and build operational habits that sustain the marketing lift.
- Weekly group coaching + practice area masterminds connect John with attorneys who have already made the $700K–$1.5M jump.

Elite Coach Plus | $3,200/mo bundled

- $400K–$1M revenue, any team size — correct tier; Master's Circle hidden (requires 5+ team members; firm has 4).
- Addresses financial visibility gap — coaching framework builds the P&L review habit Julia's manual bookkeeping cannot provide.

Why This Ad Spend

What it does for John:

- Conservative ($3,500): ~6 cases/mo x ~$4,100 = ~$24,600/mo from ads — a ~7x return on ad spend (estimate).
- Aggressive ($5,000): ~11 cases/mo x ~$4,100 = ~$45,100/mo from ads — a ~9x return on ad spend (estimate).

How the range was calculated:

- Conservative: Family law minimums: PPC $1,500 + LSA $1,000 + Meta $700 = $3,200, rounded to $3,500.
- Aggressive: $1.5M goal x 20% / 12 x 1.15 (Raleigh Tier 3) = $28,750 minus $7,847 fee = $20,903; capped at Starter maximum $5,000.

If She Pushes Back

"We tried something like this before and it did not work."

Ask specifically what failed — attribution? reporting? communication? SMB Team's campaigns include monthly cost-per-acquisition reporting so results are visible every month, not a black box.

"We cannot afford $11,000 a month with revenue down 30%."

At $60K/mo revenue, $11,047 is 18.4% — well under 35% cap. Conservative scenario projects ~$24,600/mo in new ad revenue. The question is whether the firm can afford to stay at $720K without a recovery plan.

"We already run our own Google Ads."

Julia confirmed the firm cannot distinguish paid from organic leads. McIlveen (102 reviews) pays less per click for identical keywords due to higher Quality Scores. Managed campaigns fix tracking and competitive positioning simultaneously.

"We need to hire a paralegal before we can handle more leads."

Hiring before the pipeline is confirmed is the higher-risk sequence. Build the marketing system first, verify case volume, then hire into confirmed demand — the coaching package covers exactly this sequencing.
